Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Railway Department, 22nd June 1864.

No. 90. Proceedings of Government, dated 22nd June 1864, No. 398.

The Government of India having intimated their desire that Mr. G. N. Taylor, who has lately investigated and reported on the management of the Railways in the Bengal and Bombay Presidencies, should be furnished with the necessary materials to enable him to report on the Railways in this Presidency, the Governor in Council directs that C. Rungacharloo, Assistant to the Inam Commissioner, who worked under Mr. Taylor in his late inquiries in Bengal and Bombay, shall be employed in collecting the information necessary to enable Mr. Taylor to prepare his report. It is understood that C. Rungacharloo is provided with sets of queries adapted to elicit the requisite information. Orders will be issued in the Revenue Department, directing the Officiating Inam Commissioner to give C. Rungacharloo such leave as he may require, for the purpose of visiting Madras and Negapatam, and making all requisite inquiries in the offices of the Railway Agents and of the Consulting Engineer, who will be good enough to attend to his requisitions. On completing his inquiry Rungacharloo will forward the results to Mr. Taylor. The remuneration to be assigned to Rungacharloo for the special duty now assigned to him will be settled hereafter.
