Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th June 1864.

No. 354. Read the following letter from W. T. BLAIR, Esq., Acting Inám Commissioner, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Coimbatore, 7th June 1864, No. 43 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to submit for the favourable orders of Government the case of Bháshyam Mudali, a Clerk in my Establishment on a salary of Rupees 25, whose promotion to a place of higher emolument is barred by the opinion of the Civil Auditor that he is ineligible for the same under the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination Rules.

2. Bháshyam Mudali was a Clerk in the Commissariat Offices at Jackatalla and Vellore from the 9th January 1855 to 30th April 1859, and lost his place in consequence of the reduction of the Establishment. He afterwards held temporary situations in the same Department up to 29th May 1861, and remained unemployed for five months before being taken into this Office on the 15th November 1861. Bháshyam Mudali thus held a permanent appointment before and on the 1st January 1859, and his subsequent loss of employment was owing to the necessities of the State.

3. During the period of his service out of this Commission, he held acting appointments (in some cases for more than a month) on salaries of Rupees 28, 35, and 40 in permanent Establishments.

4. He has been now in permanent service for nearly seven years. His character and usefulness as a public servant have been well spoken of by the Officers under whom he served, and his career in this Office has been exemplary. I beg, therefore, with reference to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 2nd May 1859, No. 680, to recommend his case for the favourable consideration of Government, and request that he may be declared exempt from the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Examination Rules so far as they bar his promotion in his own line of employment as an English Clerk.

No. 355. ORDER THEREON, 29th June 1864, No. 1,108.

Miscellaneous.

The Government are not disposed to exempt Bháshyam Mudali from the operation of the Uncovenanted Civil Service Rules. The General Test is of the simplest character, and if the individual in question cannot pass it, he is undeserving of promotion to a post of higher value than 25 Rupees.
