No. 1,129.

No. 18.

From

J. D. SIM, Esq.,

Secretary to the Government of Fort Saint George,

To

The Commissioner of Mysore.

SIR,

Forests.

With reference to the Notification, dated 7th instant, forwarded with your Secretary's letter No. 513, for publication in the "Fort Saint George Gazette," I am directed to inform you that this Government has no power to require that timber entering the Madras Presidency from Mysore and Coorg should be covered by a pass, or to confiscate any that may cross the frontier without a pass. I am to suggest, therefore, that paragraph 2 of the Notification should be modified accordingly.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) J. D. SIM,
Secretary to Government.
