Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th July 1864.

No. 476. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th April 1864, No. 2,542.

Read again letter from the Acting Collector of the Kistna District, dated 24th October, No. 237, recorded in the Board's Proceedings, under date 11th December 1863, No. 7,834.

Read also the following letter from the Collector of the Kistna District, dated 15th January 1864, No. 4:—

1. With reference to the Order of Government, dated 27th November 1863, No. 2,147, communicated with the Board's Endorsement under date 4th December last, I have the honor to state that I have but few remarks to offer in addition to those contained in Mr. Foord's letter of 21st October last, No. 237.

2. The Peshkush of Sriramavaram referred to in the Memorial, was not fixed when it was given to the Memorialist, with reference to the assets of the Circuit Committee, as was done in the case of other Estates. Besides, the village was originally given to relieve the family of the Memorialist from an embarrassed condition. On these grounds the Memorialist's prayer is entitled to re-consideration. The high collections in the village during the last two years were, I believe, attributable to high prices, but as it is not now under this District, I cannot write positively on this point. The village is above the reach of anicut irrigation.

3. As regards the Peshkush on the Mutah of Chavendra, referred to in paragraph 14 of the Memorial, I beg to state that the sum of Rupees 4,738, recommended by Mr. Porter, late Collector, appears to be fair, being little more than two-thirds of the average collection of the items entered in the Circuit Committee accounts; but the deductions from the said amount, as proposed by the Memorialist in the said paragraph, are inadmissible.

4. The last prayer to exempt his village of Ravecherla from all liability to tax is also untenable.

The original Memorial is herewith returned.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Memorial.

1. Resolved that the letters above recorded be submitted for the consideration and orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council, with reference to the Orders of Government under date 20th July 1863, No. 1,344, and 27th November 1863, No. 2,147.

2. The Memorialist's case is so completely stated in the first of these two Orders of Government that the Board deem it unnecessary to make any remarks here upon the circumstances of his family, and will confine their observations to the points raised in paragraphs 26, 27 and 28 of that Order, for there is little to add, in reference to the second Petition, except to bring to notice the remark contained in the closing paragraph of the first letter above recorded, to the effect that the patrimony of the late Simhadri Appa Row is in dispute between his widow and his brother, the present Petitioner, though the latter is at pains to state, in his second Petition, that he is the sole heir to his brother's entire property.

3. It seems clear to the Board, from paragraph 7 of Mr. Foord's letter, that the village of Streeramavaram was originally too highly assessed, and though they share that gentleman's doubts as expressed in paragraph 5 of his letter, as to the genuineness of the Petitioner's accounts showing a succession of nine bad seasons, yet they are of opinion that if the village of Streeramavaram was given to Petitioner as a means of improving his condition, the Peshkush fixed was considerably higher than was warranted by the facts.

4. It will be observed by a reference to the Statement contained in paragraph 8 of Mr. Foord's letter that the out-turn of this village, during the last seventeen years, has been below the Peshkush on no less than seven occasions, and that the most favourable years considerably more than four-fifths of the collections would have been absorbed to meet this demand.

29th July 1864.*

Under these circumstances the Board are inclined to acquit, in a great measure, Petitioner from blame, so far as the accumulation of arrears in this village is concerned, and should Government be disposed to restore this village to him, they consider that a Pesheush equivalent to two-thirds of the average collections of the last seventeen years shown in the Collector's letter, would be a fair demand. Though Petitioner never paid a higher sum than 530 Rupees for the Estate and yet fell into arrears, the Board consider that it is not probable, with improved prices, that this contingency will occur again, and the actual collections of the past seventeen years will bear them out in this opinion.

5. As to the Pesheush of the Muthahs of Thengellamudi and Chevendra, both Messrs. Thornhill and Foord consider that the rates of Pesheush proposed by the late Collector, Mr. Porter, were more appropriate than those proposed by the Commissioner for the Northern Circars, and eventually adopted. Mr. Porter seems to have adjusted his rates by what ought to have been the collections, i. e., by the assets which the holder of the Muthahs might by law collect. It seemed that previous to the sub-division the Zemindar had alienated certain portions of the revenues without authority and that Mr. Porter did not wish these alienations, which were repugnant to the law, to be taken into account in fixing the proportion of the Pesheush payable by each sub-division of the Estate. Mr. Elliott, on the other hand, considered that the rates of Pesheush should be apportioned in proportion to the actual collections, apparently because the family arrangement under which the sub-division of the Estate was made, was based upon the present actual value of the villages, and not on their original value, and because the plan proposed by Mr. Porter would have had the effect of upsetting many of the existing favorable tenures and thereby of creating much discontent and confusion.

6. It would seem, therefore, that in adopting the actual collections as the basis on which the rates of Pesheush on each division of the Estate were adjusted, Mr. Elliott contemplated, in a measure, sanctioning the unauthorized alienations of revenue, though his proposals did not necessarily involve it, and the Board would be averse to disturbing the sub-division accounts at this distance of time. At the same time they consider that Petitioner and his brother were fairly entitled to derive an annual net profit of Rupees 7,200 from these two Muthahs, and that if it can be shown that they have not done so, their claims are entitled to favorable consideration.

7. The two Muthahs were accepted by Petitioner and his deceased brother in lieu of the monthly allowance of Rupees 600, and this amount, at least, they are entitled to derive from them, without taking into account the arrears of allowance which were due when the villages were made over to them. The Board are of opinion that the fairest course to pursue would be to make a careful valuation of the assets of these villages, and after making due allowance for variations of season and cost of collections, to adjust the Pesheush accordingly, taking into account, of course, Petitioner's allowance of Rupees 600 per mensem.

8. The third and fifth requests contained in the last paragraph of Petitioner's second Memorial are, of course, inadmissible; and no grounds appear to exist for the fourth, for the Acting Collector reports that there is nothing in the records to show that it was ever in contemplation to confer a third village on Petitioner, and the Petitioner himself is apparently unable to produce any documents in support of this demand.

No. 477.

ORDER THEREON, 29th July 1864, No. 1,354.

Land Revenue.

29th July 1863, No. 1,344.
27th Nov. " " 2,147.

I. These Proceedings relate to two Memorials from members of the Appa Rau family in the Kistna District, forwarded to the Board of Revenue with the Orders marginally noted for report on certain points.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th July 1864.

2. The Memorialists in the first instance were Simhadri Appa Rau and Venkatadri Appa Rau, the two sons of Nursimha Appa Rau. Since the first reference was made the former of these individuals has died, and Venkatadri Appa Rau now petitions on his own account.

3. In the Order of the 20th July last, No. 1,344, is embodied a brief history gathered from the Government records, of the circumstances under which the Memorialists base their claims for consideration.

4. The Memorialists' object was, if possible, to obtain possession of one-third share of the Noozeed and Nedadavole Zemindaries, failing which they sought,

I.—That the Village of Streeramaveram may be permanently restored on half Beriz, as originally conferred upon them, or another village granted instead.

II.—That the amount of Pesheush which they pay on the two Mootahs of Tangalamudi and Chevendra may be reduced to the sums originally stipulated by the Collector, viz., Rupees 5,228 in the former, and Rupees 4,738 in the latter case, and that credit may be given for, or re-payment made of, such sums as may have been collected in excess from them.

III.—That a third village may be granted to them as originally promised.

To these requests Venkatadri Appa Rau has, in his second Memorial, added two more viz. :—

IV.—That orders may be issued to the Civil Courts in view to relieve him from responsibility for all liabilities, and

V.—That the Jaghir village of Ravicherla may, on account of its unproductiveness, be exempted from all liability to tax.

5. In regard to the primary request the Government remarked that considering what had passed the claim to a share in the original Estate could not be re-entertained.

The other points have now been reported upon by the Board of Revenue, and they will be considered in order.

Vide paragraphs 19, 23, 24, and 26 of G. O. 20th July 1863, No. 1,344.

From Mr. Foord, 24th October 1863, No. 237, paragraphs 2, 3.

From Mr. Thornhill, 15th January 1864, No. 4, paragraph 2.

* Proceedings 27th April 1864, No. 2,542, paragraphs 3 and 4.

I.—Streeramaveram.—The Board were asked to report whether there was reason to suppose that the Pesheush of this village was originally fixed at too high a rate. Both the late Acting Collector and the present Collector of the Kistna District think that such was the case, and the Board concur* with them in thinking that the Pesheush fixed was considerably higher than was warranted by the assets considering that the village was granted as a means of improving the Memorialists' condition. The Board further suggest, in case the Government should be disposed to return the village to the Memorialists' family, that the Pesheush might be fixed at two-thirds of the average collections for the last 17 years. The collections of this period amount, according to the statement given in paragraph 8 of Mr. Foord's letter, to Rupees 16,317, the average would be Rupees 960, and two-thirds of that Rupees 640. This exceeds the sum formerly paid, viz., Rupees 530, which was half the regular Pesheush of the village, but the Board are of opinion, looking at improvement in prices, that the grantee would not again fall into arrears.

II.—Tangalamudi and Chevendra Mootahs.—In the 5th and two following paragraphs of their Proceedings the Board express an opinion, based on the Collector's reports, that if the two Mootahs in question do not yield an annual net profit of Rupees 7,200, a reduction in the Pesheush should be made. They fix upon that sum, because it was in lieu of an allowance of Rupees 600 a month paid jointly by the Noozeed and Nedadavole Zemindars that the two Mootahs were assigned. The fairest course would be, the Board think, to make a careful valuation of the assets of these villages, and allowing for variation of season and cost of collection, to adjust the Pesheush accordingly.

III.—The third prayer of the Memorialists was that a third village might be granted them as originally promised. The Collector reports that no record exists of any such promise having been made.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 29th July 1864.

IV.—The fourth request, as stated in paragraph 4 above, is considered inadmissible.

V. The Board think that compliance with the fifth, which relates to the village of Ravicherla is also inexpedient.

6. The Government authorize the Board to offer the village of Streeramavaram to the Memorialists on the terms suggested, and to institute an enquiry into the assets of the villages composing the Mootahs of Tangalamudi and Chevendra in view to an adjustment of the Peshcush on the basis suggested. As to the other requests the Government agree with the Board that there are no grounds for the grant of a third village; or for exempting Ravicherla from all liability to tax; and that the fourth proposal is obviously inadmissible.

7. The Board will direct the Collector to make the Memorialists or their representatives, acquainted with the course which the Government have determined upon in regard to their representations. They should also be informed that the Government deem it unnecessary to forward their present Memorials to the Secretary of State; but, that they are at liberty, if dissatisfied with the measure of relief afforded them to present a further statement, modified with reference to the orders now passed.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 11th December 1863.

Read the following letter from E. B. FOORD, Esq., Acting Collector of the Kistna District, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Masulipatam, 24th October 1863, No. 237 :—

• Enclosure (printed Memorial) herewith returned.

1. With reference to the Board's Proceedings* of the 24th July last, communicating Orders of Government dated 20th idem, No. 1,344, and calling for a full report on paragraphs 26, 27, and 28, contained therein, I have the honor to submit the following explanation.

Paragraph 26.

2. The village of Streeramavaram, alluded to in paragraph 26, was formerly attached to the Malakacherlah Muthah, which belonged to Muntripragada Venkatramanah. In the year 1830, the said Muthah was sub-divided for the sale of certain villages thereof, in satisfaction of certain private debts of the Zemindar, under the Orders of the Civil Court. The proportionate amount of the permanent Peishcush, which accordingly fell on the village of Streeramavaram was Rupees 1,061-1-6, calculated on the average collections of eleven years, as explained in Statement C, which accompanied Mr. Collector Dent's letter to the Board dated

To Board 6th July 1830.
From do. 23rd September 1830.
To do. 24th November 1830.
From do. 7th December 1830.

24th November 1830. The Sub-division in question was sanctioned by the Board, as will be seen from the correspondence noted in the margin.

3. The aforesaid proprietor of the village of Streeramavaram, M. Venkatramanah, having subsequently fallen in arrears of Peishcush amounting to Rupees 2,660, it was sold and purchased* on account of Government on 2nd July 1835, for the above amount.

4. The village continued under Government for two years (Faslis 1245 and 1246). The collections in Fasli 1246 were very low on account of the badness of the season. In Fasli 1247, it was granted by Government to Simhadry Appa Row, one of the Petitioners, as a favor, he and his family having been reduced to much distress. Though the permanent Beriz on the village was Rupees 1,061-1-6 per annum, it would appear from paragraph 6 of the Board's letter to Government dated 26th October 1837, and paragraph 2 of Extract from Minutes of Consultation dated 17th November 1837, No. 1,616, that it was directed, that for the first five years, one-half only of the said Peishcush should be demanded from Simhadry Appa Row, with a view to giving him the means of improving it.

5. After the village was made over to him, if the accounts are to be credited (and I must confess I much doubt their trustworthiness, as a succession of nine bad seasons is altogether unprecedented), the entire resources fell every year to the extraordinary low amounts as shown in the margin. Hence an arrear of Rupees 2,023-4-1 (which was nearly equal to four years' Peishcush) accrued on the village up to Fasli 1251, for which it was attached. Upon inquiry being the permanent Beriz or Rupees 530. The Government however directed that in the event of the Proprietor again falling in arrear the village should be sold outright.

6. In July 1844, the village was again attached for an arrear of Rupees 595-9-8. In November 1843 it was advertised for sale for an arrear of Rupees 1,798-4-7, inclusive of interest as noted below. It was sold and purchased on account of Government in February 1847 for Rupees 800.

7. With reference to the concluding part of paragraph 26 of the Order of Government under acknowledgment, I beg to observe that the original Peishcush on the village of Streeramaveram appears to have been fixed at too high a rate; for the nine years' average collections, as per account of the Circuit Committee, was only Rupees 859. But from Faslis 1228 to 1238, the village was much improved* by the then Zemindar, and the collections in consequence increased, as shown in the marginal statement. The collections of these good years having been adopted for the formation of the Sub-division Accounts in 1830, the average came to Rupees 1,800-1-8, i. e., more than double the average taken by the Circuit Committee. If the latter average (Rupees 859) had been adopted in fixing the Peishcush, it would have been Rupees 506† and odd only, and half of that (for which it was given to Petitioner), would have been Rupees 253 per annum.

8. Immediately the above village reverted to Government, its resources appear to have improved as shown in the subjoined Statement, but even during this period, it would appear that the actual produce was quite insufficient to meet the Government demand in some years, and in others the profits were only nominal. As the village, however, was sold for arrears of Peishcush and purchased by Government, it remains with them to consider whether, under the said circumstances, the Petitioner's prayer is entitled to consideration, with reference to the original intention of Government, expressed in paragraph 2 of Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated 17th November 1837, No. 1,616, received with the Board's Proceedings of the 27th idem.

9. Adverting to paragraph 27 of the Government Order under reply, I beg to report, that the Thungellamudi and Chevendra Mutahs therein referred to, formed part of the Nidadavole Estate, which was sub-divided into the four Divisions noted in the margin, on the occasions of the transfer of two Perganahs thereof, to the Nazid Zemindar in liquidation of his debt, and of the two Mutahs in question to the Memorialists in commutation of the allowance to which they were entitled. Hence the entire Peishcush on the Estate (Rupees 2,10,000), was apportioned on the four divisions in question. In doing this, the Memorialists complain that the 2nd and 4th Divisions, given to them, were burdened with the sums which should have fallen on the two other Divisions; for, pending the preparation of the Sub-division Accounts, a temporary Peishcush was fixed, as specified in the margin, by taking the average of the gross collections of twelve years from Fasli 1240 to Fasli 1251.

The first, was in reference to the actual collections in all the Divisions, amounting to Rupees 2,29,464.

The second scale was fixed with reference to the collections of the items entered in the Circuit Committee Accounts, viz., Rupees 2,64,090.

The third was fixed with reference to the demand of the items entered in the Circuit Committee Accounts, viz., Rupees 3,04,881; and the fourth was fixed with reference to the Jamabundy demand of Faslis 1240 to 1251, viz., Rupees 3,00,133. The figures entered in column 4 consisted of collections of such items only as were taken into calculation by the Circuit Committee. Mr. Porter, in calculating these assets, took no notice of the unauthorized alienations of land, or other alterations, in the system of revenue made by the Zemindar subsequent to the Circuit Committee; as they would have altered the assets of each Division materially. He therefore recommended that the permanent Beriz, on the four Divisions in question, should be fixed with reference to the collections of the items entered in the Circuit Committee Accounts, as such only were adopted

Vide paragraph 35 of Mr. Porter's report dated 30th March 1849. when fixing the Peishcush of certain other subdivided Estates on former occasions.

11. Notwithstanding the practice in observance, and the fact that the assets recommended by the Collector, according to this calculation, were in excess of the "actual collections," the Commissioner for the Northern Circars dissented from the opinion of the Collector, and fixed the Peishcush with reference to the actual collections.—Vide the Commissioner's report dated 31st December 1849, No. 169, paragraph 17. If the Peishcush had been fixed (as the Memorialists now pray) in accordance with the Collector's recommendation, the difference would have been as follows:—

12. Adverting to paragraph 28 of the Order of Government, I beg to report that Simhadry Appa Row presented Petitions, so far back as 1842, to the Board, requesting among other things that he might be placed in possession of another village, which he alleged was promised to him by Sir T. Adam, late Governor of Madras, to induce him to withdraw the claims he had advanced to a share in the Nuzid and Nidadavole Estates, and accept an allowance in lieu thereof. In his report of the 25th November 1842 to the Board, Mr. Porter stated that the records of the Office did not show that the grant of any village, besides those of Streeramavaram, and Ravecheriah, was were even hinted at by a former Governor, or made a matter of reference either to the Collector or the Board.

13. Of the two Mutahs of Thengellamudi and Chevendra, the former has been transferred to the Godavery District, and the latter is still in this District. The English correspondence being all lodged in this Office, this report has been prepared accordingly.

14. Simhadry Appa Row, the Proprietor of the Thungellamudi Moolah, having died without issue, the right of succession to the Moolah in question is in dispute between his widow, and his brother Venkatadry Appa Row, the second Memorialist.

The Board will defer disposing of the above letter until they receive the report called for in the Board's Proceedings, under date 4th December 1863, No. 7,649A.

*The humble Memorial of RAJAH VENKATADRY
APPARAO BAHADUR Zamindar, the 3rd Son of RAJAH NARASIMHA APPARAO BAHADUR, Circar Mustaphanaggar, in the Kistna District, under the Madras Government.*

MOST SUBMISSIVELY SHOWETH,

That your Memorialist's late father was a legal Co-heir to the two Zamindari of Ellore and Kuziveed, but was unjustly deprived of his undisputed right of inheritance to those two Zemindaries by the interference of the local Authorities. In the humble hope of obtaining full redress, your Memorialist most respectfully ventures to lay open his case before your Excellency, who is well known to be the great Advocate of the distressed; and your Petitioner firmly believes that he will be fully heard and protected.

That your Memorialist's Grand father, Rajah Nariah Apparao, had two wives, by the first of whom, he had a son Venkata Narasimha Apparao and by the second, two sons named Ramachendra Apparao and Narasimha Apparao, your Memorialist's father. After his death in fasli 1211 his 3 sons, being minors, the Zemindary was taken under the immediate management of the Government and an allowance was fixed, for the time being, for the support of the minors. In fasli 1212 orders were received from the Supreme Authority, to put Venkata Narasimha Apparao in possession of the Ellore Taluq, and both Ramachendra Apparao and Narasimha Apparao in that of Condapilly Taluq, furnishing them at the same time "with Sunnud-i-Milkout Istimrar" or deeds of Permanent property. It must however be mentioned with regret, that your Memorialist's father still was a minor; so that in executing these orders, it was urged by the Collector, that the Condapilly Taluq should be still kept under Government management, until the minor Zamindar had attained his full age; but on promises having been made by the Co-heir Ramachendra Apparao, that he would divide the estate between himself and his minor younger brother, on the latter obtaining his majority, the Collector Mr. Brandford ordered the Condapilly Taluq to be made over to Ramachendra Apparao, taking from him a written Kararnamah binding him to fulfil his contract respecting the minor Zamindar. A report was forwarded by the Collector of these circumstances, together with a copy of the Kararnamah, to the special Commission and to the Board of Revenue.

Subsequently on attaining his majority, your Memorialist's father demanded his portion of the Condapilly Zamindary of his elder brother, when the latter flatly refused to keep his promise. His failing to obtain justice from the Local Authorities; their advice to your Memorialist's father to resort to the Judicial Courts; his implicit obedience in following that course and repeatedly seeking justice from the lower Tribunals to the higher Appellate Courts; the diversity of their decisions; the enactment of Regulation IV of 1829, for annulling the original Sunnuds and for issuing in their place new Sunnuds in order to divide the two Zemindari of Ellore and Condapilly between the three sons of the old Zamindar Nariah Apparao; the subsequent cancelling of the said Regulation by Act II of 1835, are all fully detailed from paras 2 to 14 in his humble Memorial dispatched to your Excellency thro' the Madras Government under date the 20th July 1860; and to avoid the repetition of the same here, your Memorialist begs to submit for your Excellency's kind perusal and indulgent consideration, "another copy of the same."

*Vide enclosure A.

3. The most philanthropic and sublime sentiments which Her Majesty the Queen's Royal Proclamation gave expression to on the 1st November 1858, on the auspicious occasion of Her Assuming the direct sovereignty of India, viz.
"We desire no extension of our present territorial possessions and while we permit no aggression upon our Dominions or Our rights to be attempted with impunity, we shall sanction no encroachment on those of others. We shall respect the rights and dignity and honor of Native Princes as our own; and we desire that they, as well as our own subjects, should enjoy that prosperity and social advancement which can only be secured by internal peace and good Government;"— have produced in Her Indian subjects, inexpressible joy and the hope of obtaining impartial justice and protection in the enjoyment of their rights under Her prosperous reign. Overjoyed and encouraged by the said express declaration of Her Majesty's Pleasure and the more so by finding your Excellency to be the grand medium of meeting out equal handed justice to Her Majesty's Indian subjects, your memorialist has laid his case before your Excellency and prays you will have pity on his degraded position and to kindly recommend him for the consideration of Her Majesty in Council and obtain for him the restoration of his lawful patrimonial possessions. It is now about 50 years since your Memorialist's father and himself have been in vain seeking justice; they have never given any offence to the Authorities in any manner, so as to afford them the smallest plea for the rigorous course that has been adopted with respect to them; it is most lamentable, that upon very insufficient grounds and unsound principles, they should be deprived of their Zamindary rights and thereby subjected to privations and themselves and their children thrown into a most humiliating position wholly incompatible with their dignity and standing in society. And as there are several points in favor of your Memorialist to procure him a review and amendment of his deplorable case, he implores your Excellency will condescend to hear his prayers and afford him justice.

4. The British Government with a view of ensuring free administration of justice to their subjects and to provide against unjust and erroneous decisions, have established Civil Courts, throughout their Territory; these Courts are one higher than the other with powers to hear appeals. Regulations and Acts have been enacted for their guidance; but it is surprising that your Memorialist's father, though he had gone thrice with his claims, regularly from the lower Court up to the Sudar Adalat Court, yet could not obtain the smallest Justice. Not one of the Tribunals earnestly took up the question. The Sudar Adalat Court, passed two glaringly contradictory decisions, ignoring the fact of your Memorialist's father being the true and lawful third son of the Rajah Nariah Apparao and entitled to a share in the whole Zamindary, and in so doing they did not shew sufficient cause, for invalidating Petitioner's claim, to the injury of his and his lineal descendant in their hereditary right to the Zamindary. Particulars will be seen in the following paras.

5. Your Memorialist's father, at first appeared before the Zillah Court of the late Masulipatam District, claiming from his Elder brother Ramachendra Apparao half of the Condapilly Zamindary comprising the six Paraganahs of Weeyoor Madur &c. The Court decided that a monthly allowance of 300 Pagodas should be granted to him in lieu of the half of the Zamindary demanded. But being dissatisfied therewith, an appeal was laid before the Sudar Adalat, who after taking the opinion of the Law Officers of their Court, adjudged that your Petitioner's father should bring a fresh complaint against both his Elder brothers, for one third of the two Zamindari in their enjoyment and to that a decree under date the 20th April 1815 was the result, but they did not pronounce that your Memorialist's father had no right in any way to a participation in the patrimonial Zamindary. Being thus instructed he commenced suing his two brothers in the late Northern Provincial Court, and obtained a decree in his favour for $\frac{1}{3}$ of the Zamindary. The Defendants, on their appealing from it, the Sudar Court, against their own decision passed in 1815, held proceedings to the effect that they could neither take cognizance of the suit nor enforce their former orders on the subject, and at once dismissed the suit with costs on the 20th May 1819, to the serious detriment of your Memorialist's father's interests; such a strange departure from justice, is worthy of your Excellency's notice and remarks. The Records of the Sudar Court, teem with precedents and instances of similar cases of litigation brought before them and decided by them according to the principles of justice and equity; especially the case of the two brothers of the Mylavaram Zamindary in this District regarding the portion of their ancestral Zamindary when the Sudar Court decided that the two brothers, Venkatapatirao and Ramachendrarao should equally divide between themselves their father's Zamindary and accordingly enforced that decree. It is only in the instance of your humble Petitioner, they fell into a grievous mistake; but it is a mistake which entirely ruined your Petitioner. Had the Sudar Court not instructed your Memorialist's father to renew his suit against his two brothers, he would have kept quiet and contented himself with the decree of his own fate. It was only by their advice, that he again sued his brothers at an enormous expense and it was also by their final orders, declaring his suit untenable under the provisions of Regulation XXV of 1802 to the effect that they were unable to cancel the permanent Sunnuds they had already given, that he fell a victim to a large debt and much misery. Your Excellency will view the part played by the Sudar Court, and remark whether it is consistent with the principles of justice that such an Appellate Court, as that of Sudar Court, to whom the Legislature has given full power over a Country of vast magnitude and placed the people and their rights under its protection and justice, should advise a client to adopt a certain course, and after he had blindly followed it up, to knock him down with a load of costs to his irreparable ruin. Your Memorialist's case, your Excellency will peruse, presents no features difficult to surmount. In one view it will be plainly seen that on the death of your Memorialist's Grand father, the whole Zamindary was held under Circar management and very shortly after, by the express orders of Government, it was made over to the three surviving sons of the deceased Rajah allowing the Ellore Zamindary to Venkata Narasimha Apparao and the Conlapilly now called the Nuzed Zamindary to both Ramachendra Apparao and Narasimha Apparao, but those orders did not exclude the latter. It was only upon consideration of the latter being then a minor, that his portion of half of the Zamindary was left with the Co-heir Ramachendra Apparao as a trustee for a time, on condition of restoring it back to the minor, after his obtaining his proper age. Now to get back the portion of the Zamindary so entrusted, your Memorialist's father was compelled to go through a tedious and protracted litigation for about 2½ scores of years, and tried the patience of the authorities, but obtained no justice.

6. On appealing to the Madras Government against the said decision of the Suder Adalat which ousted your Memorialist's father from his hereditary right to the Zamindary, the then Presiding Governor Sir Thomas Munro touched with the tale of your Memorialist's father, and struck with the fact that those grievances proceeded from a defective judgement on the part of the Judicial Authorities, ordered a sum of 800 Rupees to be paid monthly from the Circar Treasury, as an advance to meet the immediate wants of your Memorialist's father, and proposed at the same time the enactment of Regulation IV of 1829 for annulling the Sannuds issued to the Ellore and Nuzed Zamindaries and for providing new Sannuds to invest the 3 sons of your Memorialist's Grand father with claims to equal shares in the said two Zamindaries. But before these arrangements could be reduced to practice His Lordship was obliged to quit the Indian shores for Europe, and subsequently the said enactment was rescinded by Regulation IV of 1830, by the Supreme Government.

7. From the above detailed account your Excellency can plainly discern the amount of injustice sustained by your Memorialist and that the simple solution of the question is the enforcement of the surrender of the half portion of Zamindary from Ramachendra Apparao who held it as a trust for his minor brother according to the terms of his Kararnamah, but this seemed impracticable to the Authorities under the Madras Government.

Vide the General Reports of the Collectors for years 1800-1801 and 1802 about this Kararnamah.

It is much to be regretted that the Suder Adalat Court, should have advised your Memorialist's father to bring a suit de novo against his two Elder brothers, and to have dismissed the first one, a valid one in point of Law, and ultimately to have said, that the first Sannuds were a bar to your Memorialist's claims. An instance of such flagrant partiality and injustice can never have fallen to the lot of any, except to your Memorialist in the Presidencies of your Government or even to any individual under the Home Government. How strange, that among the 3 sons of one father, with the same rights, that two of them, should inherit their estates and the third be excluded and left to poverty? Can that British Government assisted by such learned and judicious Council as that of your Excellency, and conferring vast benefits upon the people of India and securing their loyalty, be so regardless of its glory as to have it said that under its rule, your Memorialist and his lineal descendants belonging as they do to an illustrious family endowed with certain privileges and rights, are ruined from perversion of justice?

8. Your Memorialist's father after a fruitless attempt at obtaining redress, departed this life, in January 1832 and your Memorialist and his brothers being then minors, the Government paid them at the rate of 400 Rupees a month for their maintenance.

9. Your Memorialist and his brothers on their attaining their proper age, had used their feeble endeavours to obtain justice, on the occasion of His Lordship Sir Parnie Adam the Governor of Madras's visit to this part of the Country. Your Petitioners had an opportunity of personally detailing their grievances and His Lordship without granting them redress was pleased to order a sum of 400 Rupees from the Ellore Zamindar and 200 Rupees from the Nuzed Zamindar to be paid monthly for the maintenance of your Memorialists, and a further sum of Rupees 600 to be paid by them both, for the purpose of celebrating their Marriages and to that effect your Memorialists were called upon to consent, and that if they did not consent, the Government would discontinue the monthly allowance then paid from the Circar Treasury. Helpless and apprehending lest they might lose the good will of the Government by any refusal on their part, your Memorialists humbly submitted to the arrangement which was proposed to them containing several liberal promises, thro' the then Collector Mr. J. O. Wroughton, and firmly believed that they could gradually secure the favor of the Government. Accordingly a Kararnamah was taken from your Memorialists, embracing the undermentioned conditions:

1. That a monthly allowance of Rs. 600, besides the 600 Rupees provided for the marriages expenses, be paid to the Memorialists from the Circar Treasury without the interference of the Zamindaries and the amount to be refunded to the Government from the Zamindaries.

2. That three villages yielding an annual income of 1000 Pagodas each, be granted as Jagheer, free of all assessment.

3. That your Memorialist be absolved from all liabilities contracted therewith.

4. That the Honorable Government should always continue their protection towards the Memorialists and their family and promote their well being.

A report was submitted by the Collector together with the Kararnamah to the Government through the Revenue Board, requesting authority to fulfil the promises held out in the Kararnamah.

10. The Honorable Government not giving due consideration to the recommendation of the Collector, were pleased to pass quite different orders to the following effect viz.

1. That the stipulated monthly allowance of 600 Rupees should be paid by the Zamindars themselves and not from the Circar Treasury. Thus the first condition was violated.

2. That in lieu of the 3 promised jagheer villages, only one village named Ravicherla should be favored free of assessment. Another Streeramavaram a ruined village under the Circar management, was allowed on condition of paying, for the first five years, half sist, and from the sixth year full Peishcush Rs. 1061. It was not even let on terms yielding at least a benefit equal to ¼ of the gross revenue realized from that village at that period. Thus the 2nd condition was set at naught.

3. The third condition, a nominal favor, was however granted, in consideration of your Memorialists not inheriting any patrimony.

4. The different orders passed immediately after the promises made by Government, produced in your Memorialist bitter disappointment.

11. Your Memorialist nevertheless agreed to relinquish his claims to the valuable Zamindary and to abide by the terms of the Kararnamah in question. But the Honorable Government did not deign to confer on your Memorialist the trifling consideration which was in its gift. Your Memorialist seeing no alternative quietly submitted to those rigorous orders. Subsequently Mr. Porter was appointed as Collector to this District, who learning with pain the bitter grievances of your Memorialist, kindly made a reference on the subject to Government through the Board, strongly recommending that the allowance fixed on your Memorialist should be paid directly from the Circar Treasury, leaving it to be refunded afterwards from the Zamindars, but the Government declined to comply with that request. Thereupon the Collector proposed that in lieu of the said allowance which was not regularly paid by the two Zamindaries, 8 villages out of the Ellore now called Nidadavole Zamindary and 8 villages forming Chevendra Mootah, out of the Nuzed Zamindary, should be subdivided and allotted to your Memorialist with proportionate Peishcush, but the Commissioner for the Northern Circars fixing a Peishcush of Rupees 1326, ordered the said subdivided portions to be made over to them. This burthensome Peishcush has since been another source of trouble to your Memorialist.

12. Your Memorialist having been thus kept out of his Zamindary and reduced to poverty, it now rests with your Excellency to extricate your Memorialist, from his present embarrassment and to afford him that relief, which the Local Government had failed to give. With this hope he proceeds to detail the remaining particulars connected with his case.

13. The 2nd village Ravicherla granted upon half Beriz, was a waste reverted to Government from the former Proprietor on account of arrears. Previous to its being made over to your Petitioner in fasly 1247, it hardly produced half Beriz, and your Petitioner too after all the best improvement, could not realize more than ¼ of the Circar demand. The Revenue Authorities were pleased to remit the arrears and after ascertaining these facts as per margin, let the village for another 5 years on the same terms, but no good return was anticipated. In Faslies 1253 and 1254 arrears accrued up to 500 Rupees and upwards, and the village was Zufft for 30 months, during which period, the arrears swelled to Rupees 1771 - 11 - 0 this year your Memorialist was called upon to satisfy, though the Circar knew it to have resulted from the failure of crops, and not from any mismanagement on his part. Still he promised to pay 850 Rupees by means of loans, leaving the rest to be paid by instalments. To this the authorities did not yield and at once the vilrest to be paid by instalments. To this the authorities did not yield and at once the vil-

Inge was knocked down for Rupees. 800 to the Government even below the amount your Memorialist had offered in ready cash. From this, your Lordship can plainly see that the said village has been a burthensome appendage to your Petitioner, that he could not derive any benefit from it, though he laboured and sacrificed much for its improvement with the hope of perpetuating the grant in his family, was continually obliged to contract debts abroad to discharge the Circar demands. Had the Government given the village on favourable terms, it would not be difficult to your Memorialist to meet the sist, or subject himself to the loss of the village granted to him as a token of favor. The Government knew the village was in an impoverished state and yielded a scanty produce both under the Circar as well as his own management, still they wrested it from him in opposition to their original object, which was to enable him to derive benefit, for his well being. Under these circumstances he prays your Lordship will order the restoration of the said village on a sist equivalent to $\frac{1}{3}$ of its average produce from 5 Faslies from 1247 or to favor him with any other Government village yielding an annual return of 1000 Pagodas, after deducting the Circar demand, and thereby help him to meliorate his poor condition.

14. Now regarding the two Mootahs conferred on him purely in lieu of the ready money allowance originally fixed, your Memorialist begs to observe here that, a temporary Peishcush of Rupees 6170 on the Mootah of Thungallamudy and of Rupees 5172 on that of Chevendra, was fixed on condition that, should on an examination of the subdivision accounts, it be found that the Peishcush was in excess, the surplus would be returned, but in case of a deficiency, the decrease should be made good by your Memorialist. Accordingly after a careful examination of the subdivision accounts and for several other reasons the Collector requested the Commissioner for the Northern Circars, that a permanent Peishcush of Rupees 4737 be fixed on Chevendra Mootah, but that Gentleman reducing the Peishcush on the Pargana of Pentapad, increased it to Rupees 5218 on that small Mootah, by adding Rupees 480 or Rupees 46 above the temporary Peishcush, and the same was confirmed by the Government and the full amount was since collected without any consideration being allowed for the object of the grant of the mootah. Had the authorities had any regard for your injured Memorialist, the Peishcush on the Mootah ought to have been fixed on some equitable principles. viz. First, out of Rupees 4738 recommended by the Collector & amounting to Rupees 3158 - 10 - 8 should be deducted under Peishcush, leaving Rupees 1579 - 5 - 4 as a profit to your Memorialist, or 2ndly out of the same 4738, a sum of Rupees 2400 should be deducted to meet the annual allowance fixed at Rupees 200 a month, leaving the remainder Rupees 2338 as the Circar Peishcush. Instead of adopting either of the two calculations to regulate the Peishcush, certain average produce accounts were referred to. Your Memorialist prays that the present heavy Peishcush may be renewed according to either of the calculations alluded to, or be ever permanently fixed at Rupees 4737, as was ascertained by the Collector on an examination of the subdivision accounts, and the whole of the excess Peishcush collected from him from fasly 1255 to 1271 be refunded. To grant one of the three requests your Memorialist ventures to beg that an order may be issued by your Honor to the Local Government.

15. Your Memorialist feels deep sorrow, that the Suder Adalat Court should be precluded from all jurisdiction in his case, and the Local Government also should not give ear to his claims, while in many instances they have treated other Zemindars more liberally. The said Suder Court has decreed equal rights of inheritance to sons born of the same parents; adjusted differences regarding shares between brothers; enforced several Judgments for disposing of portions of Zemindaries to satisfy private debts; restored rights to parties whose connections with Zemindaries had ceased; cancelled permanent Cows under certain circumstances and created new Cows in lieu of old ones. Again your Honorable Government has kindly remitted arrears due on certain Zemindaries; lent money to liquidate private debts, and refunded to others ready money to a large amount on account of excess collections of past faslies, and also surrendered Estates to Zemindars, after those Estates had been once permanently annexed to Government. Only in your Memorialist's case, justice and indulgence have been denied. If the Local Authorities do not redress these grievances, to whom else but to your excellency, should they be represented?

16. As now the one third portion of the Zemindary which your Memorialist has lost from violation of justice, has been brought under the Government's own management, there is ample opportunity and facility for your Lordship to afford justice by conferring on him the annexed portion comprising the two Paraganahs of Pentapad and Goondogolanco on the former Peishcush and thereby relieving him from his present distress.

17. Your Memorialist's father had three sons, A. B. and C. of whom B is given in adoption to his grand Uncle Venkata Narasimha Apparao and is now in possession and enjoyment of Noduthavolu Zamindary, the other A and C were forsaken and ultimately forced to content themselves with the two small Mootahs given them, namely the Moottah of Tugullamooddy consisting of eight villages which was given to A. Simhadry Apparao who has since died and the other a still smaller one, including six villages to C. Venkatady Apparao your present Memorialist. Though A and C thus divided the 2 Mootahs between themselves yet it was agreed upon, that in the event of failure of issue to either of them, the one should have exclusive right of possessing the other's portion providing however for the family of the other so that, by this arrangement they might firmly secure the two Mootahs as a lasting provision for life. At present C, your Memorialist is left alone to his great sorrow to represent his father and elder brother A, and he humbly implores that your Lordship will have pity on his case from his having descended from high fortune to the lowest level of poverty and admit him to full support from your Lordship's Council, and recommend the subject of his prayer. The more so as he in consequence of his brother's death is the sole heir to his entire property.

18. In conclusion your Memorialist humbly requests, that your Lordship after giving full and deliberate consideration to this Memorial, will be graciously pleased to grant him the following requests so far as your Lordship's judgment may deem proper, in consideration of the great loss and trouble which your humble Memorialist has suffered by having been deprived of his hereditary Zamindary and to confer on him your Lordship's favor.

1st. To favor on him the two Paraganahs of Pentapad and Goondogolanco with the former Peishcush being fixed upon them.

2nd. To restore permanently the village Striramavaram, after altering the original Beriz on it.

3rd. To issue orders to the Civil Courts for relieving your Memorialist from the responsibility of all liabilities.

4th. To favor him with the third village as was promised originally.

5th. To exempt the Jagheer village Ravecherla according to the original conditions, from all liability of tax, subject to the recent Legislative enactments, because the said village is situated in a jungly place and very unproductive, hardly yielding a bare subsistence to the Ryots or any benefit to the Memorialist.

For which act of justice, your Memorialist will, as in duty bound,

Ever pray.

*The humble Memorial of RAJAH SIMHADRY
APPAH ROW BAHADOOR, and RAJAH VENCATADRY APPAH ROW BAHADOOR, Zamindars Moostaphanagur, partners of the Noozed Zamindaree in the Talook of Yaloor of Masulipatam District, under the Government of Fort St. George.*

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

1. That with profound respect, your Memorialists beg leave to lay in the following few lines a succinct account of circumstances which have befallen them, in order that on a review of them, it may occur to your Lordship to afford such relief as in your wisdom it may be deemed proper, and consistent with the principles of British justice.

2. That your Memorialists are the Grandsons of the late Rajah Narriah Appah Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of the two Estates of Noozed and Nedadavole in the District of Masulipatam, as will be seen by the genealogical tree hereunto annexed.

* B has been adopted to his grand Uncle Vencatanarasimha Appah Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of Yaloor Pargunnah.--A and C or 1 and 3 are the present Memorialists whose claims are overlooked.

3. That on the demise of Narriah Appah Row Bahadoor, both Estates were taken under Management by the Government, and the following monthly allowances granted.

To Vencata Nursimha Appah Row Bahadoor, (1st wife's son,) Pagodas 840

To Ramachendra Appah Row Bahadoor, and Nursimha Appah

Row Bahadoor, 2nd Wife's Sons..... 560

until 1802,—when the Estate was divided. On this division, the Nedadavole Estate bearing a Peishchush of Rupees 2,10,000, was given to Vencata Nursimha Appah Row Bahadoor, and the Noozed Zamindares of Rupees 1,05,000, to Ramachendra Appah Row Bahadoor and Nursimha Appah Row Bahadoor. Both were given on permanent Cowle; but the name of Nursimha Appah Row, (then a minor) was omitted in it; on Nursimha Appah Row attaining his majority, he claimed his share of Noozed Estate by O. S. No. 167 of 1805, against his brother in the Zillah Court of Masulipatam,—and in 1809 obtained a Decree that Star Pagodas 300 per mensem should be paid by his brother to him. The Decree was for a share in this Estate, but as the Decree gave him an allowance only, he appealed from it to the Provincial Court by Appeal Suit, No. 37 of 1809. This Court decreed him entitled to a moiety of the Estate and required it to be made over to him. Ramachendra Appah Row appealed from this to the Sudr Udalut in Special Appeal No. 4 of 1812; the question was referred by that Court to the Pundits, who declared Nursimha Appah Row entitled to $\frac{1}{4}$ share of the whole Estates of Noozed and Nedadavole:

Vide Enclosure A.

the Decree of the Provincial Court was thereupon set aside by its order, dated 20th April 1815, and Nursimha Appah Row was directed to prefer his claim de novo in accordance with the views of the Pundits. He did so by No. 47 of 1816 in the Provincial Court, Northern Division, and received a Decree in his favor, dated 30th July 1817 accordingly; but the other parties appealed from it to the Sudr in Suit No. 4 of 1818. This Court on the 20th May 1819 altered its views, and ruled that it was unable to order the division of an Estate which was protected by a Cowle, but that Government should exercise the provisions of Regulation 25 of 1802,—and that costs should be borne by Nursimha Appah Row.

Vide Enclosure B.

4. Nursimha Appah Row then appealed to the Government, and Regulation 4 of 1829 was enacted for the division of the two Estates into three shares, but this was kept in abeyance by Regulation 4 of 1830, until the opinion of the late Court of Directors should be known.

Vide Enclosure C.

Act 12 of 1835 rescinded both these enactments—the creation of this latter act alone stood a bar to the obtaining of your Memorialists their $\frac{1}{4}$ share to which they are justly entitled according to Dharmasastras. Since the death of Memorialists' father, repeated representations were made to the Authorities on the subject; but to no effect. Your Memorialists beg leave to remark here, that the late Honorable Court of Directors, in forwarding their orders for rescinding the above said two Regulations made no provision for an alteration of the said Milkiet Istimrar Sunnuds,—that your Memorialists may justly obtain their lawful share; nor did the Government issue any orders up to this day as to the measures to be adopted for obtaining the right of Memorialists; consequently Memorialists are necessarily obliged to lay this their respectful representation for your Lordship's favorable consideration.

5. It should be also observed that the Court of Sudr Udalut were not right in their last decision as above adverted to,—because the Milkiet Istimrar Sunnuds were granted in accordance to the provision of Regulation 25, which are of a subsequent date to Regulation 2 of 1802, and as Section 19 of the last mentioned Regulation declares full authority to the Civil Courts to enquire into and pass decision as to the division of the Zemindary Estates, it is therefore apparent that it is not provided for in any part of the above said Regulation 25, that Section 19 is rescinded in any wise, and the object of that Regulation (25) was enacted chiefly as to the stipulation of a permanent Peishchush on all Zemindaries as expressed in the preamble of that Regulation, and it is also provided in the said Regulation that any portion or portions of the Zemindary Estates may either be sold in satisfaction of Decrees of Civil Courts or otherwise, or given in rewards at the pleasure of the Zemindars as the circumstances might demand. Notwithstanding these, it is again provided in Regulation 26 of 1802, that whenever it may happen to make a division in a whole Zemindary either on account of sale or for any other reason, and to deliver over that portion to the party for whom it was intended, that the Peishchush or Beriz may also be proportionately divided and fixed upon;—hence it is quite clear that the Civil Courts have every power in virtue of the said Regulation to effect a division in the Zemindaries to which Milkiet Istimrar Sunnuds are granted, and this practice has been acted upon in several other instances, and if it was not for that reason, it is apparent that the Court of Sudr Udalut would not have ordered a regular Suit against both the Zemindars to be brought.

6. Should it be considered still that it is not within the jurisdiction of Civil Tribunals to award any decision as to the division of the Zemindary Estates to which Milkiet Is-timrar Sunnuds are granted, Memorialists respectfully beg permission to urge for your Lordship's information certain instances in which the Civil Tribunals took cognizance in the division and alienation of the like Zemindaries, i. e., in the District of Rajahmundry one Milkiet Istimrar Sunnud was granted to the Rajah of Peddapore for the whole 18 moottahs as contained in that Zemindary which so happened subsequently both in virtue of the decrees of Civil Courts and sales caused by Government, that several sub-divisions were effected and made over each of them to the parties respectively in whose enjoyment they yet continue; while such is the case, Memorialists are at a loss to know why that rule should not be made applicable in their case? and it is within the province of your Lordship alone to adopt necessary measures in behalf of your Memorialists as to obtain their lawful right according to Dharmasastra, as it becomes the British character to maintain the lawful and legal rights of each of their subjects.

7. That for the purpose of obtaining his lawful right, your Memorialists' late father having sacrificed a large sum of money filed his Suit twice in Courts of Justice, and they the Sudr Udalut the highest Appellate Court who once being fully convinced of the justness of his cause, directed Memorialists' late father to file in his Suit against both the Zemindars, decreed again on the contrary that it is not a matter of their jurisdiction to obtain for him his just claims, and upon subsequently representing the matter to Government, they having at first enacted a Regulation to remedy the grievance of your Memorialists, again rescinded the same without any other provision being made for rendering justice to Memorialists, although it was declared by the given opinion of the Court Pundit or Law officers, and admitted even by Government that all the offsprings of a father should indiscriminately enjoy their paternal estate without any exception, and it was with that view alone that the then Provincial Court of the Northern Division have passed their Decree in favor of Memorialists' late father. Consequently if justice is not rendered duly by your Lordship after so late a period at least as at present, because your Lordship is the highest Appellate authority next to our Most Gracious Queen (as your Memorialists been hanging in vain all along for justice on the Local Government) to whom else could your Memorialists appeal of their grievances.

8. It has been shown above that the Court of Sudr Udalut have altered their original decision in the instance of Memorialists' father that is two brothers who were equally sons like himself of the same father, were unquestionably enjoying their paternal estate, while himself alone was deprived of his legal rights, and that representations were made to Government on the subject;—the Government being then fully convinced of the open injustice done in this case, chiefly owing to the oversight of the Authorities, ordered that a sum of Rupees 800* per mensem should be paid from the Public Treasury for his subsistence, and further enacted the Regulation 4 of 1829, purposely to serve as to alter the Cowles granted to the abovesaid 2 Zemindaries, and to grant the one-third share of them to Memorialists' late father as he was fully and justly entitled to; but the provisions of the above adverted Regulation were not acted upon, and in the meanwhile Memorialists' father departed this life. Ever since, the Authorities continued to pay to your Memorialists a sum of Rupees 400 for their subsistence.

In A. D.*

9. That while thus going on in the year 1835, when Sir F. ADAM, the then Governor of Madras, visited the Northern Circars on his tour, a representation was made to His Lordship regarding the injustice done to Memorialists as already adverted to. His Lordship was then pleased to issue orders that an allowance of Rupees 600, i. e., Rupees two hundred from Sobhanadry Appah Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of Noozed, and Rupees four hundred from Narriah Appah Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of Nedadavole, should be granted for the subsistence of Memorialists, and a sum of Rupees 6,000, that is to say Rupees 2,000 from the former Zemindar, and Rupees 4,000 from the latter Zemindar, to be disbursed for the Marriage of Memorialists, and obtained a Kararnamah to the above effect from the above adverted two Zemindars, under date the 4th February 1835. After which His Lordship having sent for Memorialists intimated the arrangements which His Lordship has been pleased to effect for them, and desired that they should accept the same when Memorialists represented the injustices which they all along experienced and the indignity to which they will be subjected in allowing themselves dependant on the above said Zemindars, by yielding to the allowances that may be paid by them; while they who have equally descended from the same father as your Memorialists enjoy the indulgence of possessing separate divisions of Zemindaries. His Lordship having taken these facts into his due consideration, caused an *Bhayenamah to be to say that the stipulated allowance in question will be caused to be paid from the Public Treasury, that three villages free from any demands of Government will be also separately granted, and if consented to these conditions that Government will consider for prospering Memorialists' interest still further for the future to which your Memorialists agreed, purely with a view to gain the mercy of the Ruling Authorities, and therefore filed in their Kararnamah as were ordered.

10. That when Memorials of the District and the local Government, that notwithstanding the deprivation of their share from their paternal estate, that even the allowance which was allotted for their maintenance was not paid either by the abovenamed two Zemindars or from the Public Treasury, whereupon the Authorities were pleased to subdivide 8 villages from the Zemindaree of Nedadavole, and 6 villages from that of the Noozed Zemindaree conferred on Memorialists, with instructions to enjoy them after the payments of Circar Peishush instead of the allowances; besides which, one village called Ravecherla was granted free from any demand of Government, and another village Streeramavaram on a half Beriz of Rupees 530-8-9 for the first five years, and afterwards to pay to Circar the full Sist of Rupees 1,061-1-8, because it was a quite waste—these two latter mentioned villages were granted by Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 17th November 1837, instead of the three villages which were originally promised by the Authorities as already detailed.

Vide Enclosure, dated 23rd January 1838.

11. That since the date of the grant of the above said village Streeramavaram up to Fusly 1251, there was hardly a return of Rupees 284-2-6 annually in the said village, even after your Memorialists sacrificing a large sum of money, and labor for its improvement, and your Memorialists were therefore obliged to borrow from abroad the remaining sum of Rupees 345-10-5, and discharge the Circar Peishush during the first five years. This disadvantageous circumstance when brought to the notice of the Board of Revenue through the Collector of the District, that authority ordered a remission of the balance of the Peishush then due, and instructed that the village should again continue for a further period of five years on the same terms of half Sist as was originally granted. In Fushies 1252 and 1253, there was an income of only 302-0-3 and 216-11-9, or in the whole a sum of 518-12-0, which was also proved by a report of the Tahsildar at the requisition of the Collector, and your Memorialists however paid up Rupees 600 on account of Circar Peishush.

12. That under such circumstances their accrued an arrear of Peishush of 501-11-1 up to the month of June 1854, when Memorialists applied to allow them some time for its discharge. This request was not complied with, and the village was immediately attached and continued so up to the 22nd December 1846, by which time the balance increased to sum of 677-2-5, together with principle and interest, as well as other costs attendant during the attachment. Consequently, the balance amounted to 1,094-11-3, or in the whole amount due was 1,771-3-8; of this balance, the Collector of the District intimated to your Memorialists through an Enayetnamah, dated 1st December of that year, intimating that in case of the balance, being not forthwith paid up, that the village will be sold in a public sale, when Memorialists having sent a sum of Rupees 850 in part payment of the balance, requested a time of 10 days from that date for the discharge of the remainder, which request was not complied with, and the money was returned; while the village was immediately knocked down in the name of Government for a sum of Rupees 800, which is clearly 50 Rupees below than what your Memorialists offered in ready money.

13. That the above said village Streeramavaram was presented to your Memorialists on a permanent Cowle, and a fixed Peishush of 1061-1-8 with a pure motive of redressing the several misfortunes which befell them since the time of their late father, and it was with that hope alone that your Memorialists labored and sacrificed large sums of money for its improvement, with a view that with the assistance of the above village that your Memorialists would be enabled to discharge the debts which they were unavoidably obliged to contract; but on the contrary all their hopes were frustrated, because it hardly produced at least half of its fixed Peishush, which fact was apparently known to the District Authorities; besides this, in the course of the two years and six months, during which period the said village was under the Collector's management during attachment; there accrued a balance of 1094-11, after deducting the actual produce realized from that village; by this alone your Lordship could plainly see that the village was not a profitable one. However, as it was one which was conferred on Memorialists by the Government, it was not the wish of your Memorialists to part from it, and they requested the Collector through an Arzee, under date the 7th January 1847 to restore them the village, on payment of the whole balance, which was not complied with—whereupon Memorialists appealed to the Madras Government who also took no notice of it. If the ruling Authorities will not give consideration to the distressed case of Petitioners, to whom else could they be represented to for redress.

14. Your Memorialists further beg to urge for your Lordship's information, certain instances in which the Government have treated certain other Zemindars more liberally than your Memorialists, viz:—when one Peddapore Estate in Rajahmundry District was sold for arrears of Revenue, certain Mootahs of that Zemindary were once retained under Government management, while others were made over to certain other purchasers, but subsequently on the representation of that Zemindar the Estate was again restored to him—in like manner the Mootahs of Yaloor Caville in the District of Masulipatam were also restored to their respective proprietors after they were once sold and resumed by Government permanently. Similar indulgence was shown to several other proprietors residing in different Districts under the Madras Government. But your Memorialists are at a loss to know, why not the like indulgence shown to your Memorialists who have actually suffered, not for want of prudence on their own part, but by the oversight of the Authorities at the beginning, and the subsequent unavoidable adverse circumstances as already detailed. Do not the ruling authority (Government) adopt some measures in cases of several other proprietors or Zemindars that they may by that arrangement be redeemed from the difficulties of the debt which they might have contracted, and so retain for them the possession of their Zemindary Estates? Is it the misfortune of your Memorialists alone that they are not so treated, while they bound themselves by the orders of Government with the expectation of being still indulgently treated as they were originally promised.

15. As has been shown in the preceding paras., that 8 villages having been separated from Nedadavole Zemindaree formed them under the denomination of Thungullamootah, and conferred it upon one of the Memorialists named Simhadry Appa Row with an annual Peishush of 6,172; while 6 more villages were separated from Noozed Zemindaree, formed under the designation of Chevendra Mootah, and conferred upon the other Memorialist, Vencatadry Appah Row with a Peishush of Rupees 5,172 per annum; subsequently when the Nedadavole Estate was sub-divided, and a permanent Peishush was established, the amount of Peishush which was stipulated on the above two Mootahs according to the sub-division accounts of the Collector was as follows:—

Names of Mootahs or Purgunnahs.	Temporary Peishush.	Peishush according to the account current of the sub-division.	Peishush as connected to the actual collections.	Peishush according to the account entered in the sub-division.	Peishush as connected to the Zemindary Sist of.
1 Nedadavole.....	1,35,830	1,35,912	1,37,642	1,38,350	1,40,551
2 Thungallamooty..	6,170	5,262	5,591	4,605	4,524
3 Pentapaud.....	62,828	64,088	61,545	62,929	60,339
4 Chevendra.....	5,172	4,738	5,218	4,116	4,586
	2,10,000	2,10,000	2,10,000	2,10,000	2,10,000

In preparing this sub-division accounts, the Collector having well scrutinized the accounts of all sorts of collections of each village for the previous 12 years formed the sub-division accounts; thus the Collector having stipulated a permanent Sist upon Circar land, accordingly fixed annual Peishush upon the above Estates as shewn in column 3 of the above statement, and applied for the sanction of the then Commissioner for the Northern Circars. But the Commissioner without heeding the application of the Collector, with the only view of lessening the Peishush on the Pentapaud Estate, which was then in the enjoyment of Noozed Zemindar burdened the above adverted two small Mootahs, Thungullamooty and Chevendra, which are granted to Memorialists for their maintenance with the addition of Peishush of a sum of Rupees 1,342, and submitted for the final sanction of Government, who also without noticing the apparent variance in the above two accounts simply sanctioned the proceedings of the Commissioner. Further it is to be remarked here that the above 2 Mootahs were conferred on Memorialists purely in lieu of the allowance fixed by Government for their maintenance, and in such case a full amount of Peishush was collected from Memorialists without any consideration being allowed for the object of the grant of those Mootahs. Moreover, the Collector

Dated 20th April 1844, in Fusly 1254 issued an Enayetnamah to your Memorialists, No. 6, to Rajah Simhadry Appah Row, and to Rajah Thungullamooty, and Rupees 5,172 on the Mootah of Chevendra Vencatadry Appah Row for Fusly 1255,—and stating that should on an examination of the sub-division accounts it be found that the Peishush was in excess, the amount of the increase would be returned, but in a case of a deficiency, the decrease must be made good by your Memorialists. The Collector after carefully examining all the accounts of the sub-division, and for several reasons requested the Commissioner to obtain sanction from Government that a permanent Peishush of Rupees 5,262 be fixed on the Mootah of Thungullamooty, and Rupees 4,737 for the Mootah of Chevendra. The Commissioner from feelings of partiality to the Zemindar of Noozed rejected the Collector's recommendation which was just, reduced the Peishush on the Purgunnah Goendogollanoo and Pentapaud, but increased the Peishush on the small Mootahs of Chevendra and Thungullamooty which were given to Memorialists, in lieu of allowance for maintenance. It will appear from this, that the Commissioner did your Memorialists, an injustice. From Fusly 1254 and 55, in which the Mootahs were put in your Memorialists' possession up to Fusly 1267, or during the last 13 or 14 years, it will be seen that according to the Peishush fixed by the Collector an excess of Rs. 12,647 or Rs. 7,510 have been collected on the Mootah of Thungullamooddy, and Rs. 6,146 on that of Chevendra from your Memorialists, who entreat that an order may be issued by your honor, directing that this excess be returned or refunded to them, and that the Peishcush in future be fixed as recommended by the Collector.

16. It has been already shown fully in the foregoing paras, that the right of Zemindary which descended from generation to generation had failed from the time of Memorialists' late father, chiefly owing to the oversight of the Authorities, and the circumstance which was the cause of your Memorialists not obtaining their one-third share in the Zemindaries of Noozed and Nedadavole to which they are justly entitled, according to Rules and Dharmasastras; the fixing of an allowance of Rs. 800 per mensem to Memorialists' father during his life time, after his death an allowance of Rs. 400 in the names of Memorialists, both to be disbursed from the Public Treasury,—and further that the Government had enacted Regulation 4 of 1829, to serve to alter the Cowles granted in 1802, to the above said two Zemindaries, and that in consequence of the death of Memorialists' father and the return of the then Governor to England, in the meanwhile, was the cause of the said Regulation not being enforced. Notwithstanding these, Memorialists beg to bring to your Lordship's notice another remarkable circumstance, which since took place, that is to say, Mr. Wroughton, the late Collector of Masulipatam District, sent an Enayctnamah to your Memorialists to say, that he was directed by Government to intimate Vide p. 9 of this Memorial. to Memorialists, that in the event of their agreeing to the terms of arrangement proposed by the Authorities in their behalf, that the fixed allowance will be caused to be paid from the Public Treasury, that three more villages will be also given free from all demands of Government, and that Memorialists will be excluded from all responsibilities of the debts contracted up to that date, either by themselves or by their late father. Your Memorialists having placed full confidence on the punctuality of these conditions, gave their consent accordingly; but to their great misfortune and astonishment, not one of the above specified conditions was kept up, and your Memorialists never failed to represent to the Authorities those failures.

17. Mr. Brandford, the then Collector sent for your Memorialists' paternal uncle, and told him that the Government has permanently given him and his brother Narasimha Apparaw 6 Purgunnahs attached to the Condapilly Sircar in lieu of the monthly allowance of Pagodas 560 given them by Government, and that as Narasimha Apparaw was then a minor, the Government would secure the Purgunnahs until he attained his majority, when they would be made over to them. That thereupon your Memorialists' paternal uncle requested that as your Memorialists' father was living in undivided family with him, the Purgunnahs may be placed under his management until he attained his age, when he would make over the same to him. An agreement was also given to this effect, which was communicated to the Board and special Commission. In accordance with these facts, the Courts have on three different occasions passed decisions declaring that one-third of the Estate should be made over to your Memorialists' father. However these decrees were never carried into effect. Regulation 4 of 1829, was enacted by Government with reference to your Memorialists' right to one-third share of the Purgunnah, but this was also afterwards annulled. This is very strange. The people of India view the Government documents and proceedings as valid papers, but in your Memorialists' case they have proved nothing. In none of the Presidencies of Madras, Bombay and Calcutta have the Authorities decreed, that a brother living in a joint family should be disinherited of a share in the patrimonial Estates. Even in the Presidency of Madras, there are many instances where the Government and Sudr Udaltut have, contrary to the permanent Cowle made over portions of an estate to others. Your Memorialists have hitherto failed to discover why the Authorities have only in their case failed to render that justice which has been meted out to others. Your Memorialists beg your Lordship will attentively peruse the facts stated in this petition, together with the whole proceedings connected therewith and relieve them from their present distress, by granting the expectation of their family which is to obtain possession of a moiety of the Estate of Condapilly. Your Memorialists also pray for an order reducing the Peishcush on the Mootahs of Thungullamooddy and Chevendra, which was raised to Rupees 1,342 by the Commissioner, and relieve them from distress.

18. That in consequence of the Government not keeping any of the above enumerated conditions, Memorialists were exposed to a still greater difficulty than what they were struggling with from the commencement; because the allowance which was ordered by the Right Honorable the Governor in 1835 to be paid from the Public Treasury, was not so paid until 1843, although eight years have elapsed since, neither the ruling Authorities adopted any measures to cause the allowance in question to be paid by the Zemindars at least already named, of which Memorialists submitted several Petitions, which if referred, the truth of the circumstance will be apparent; but no notice was taken of them. Further, Memorialists respectfully beg to bring to your Lordship's notice, that the Government having once promised through an Enayctnamah, that they will relieve Memorialists from the responsibility of all liabilities which may have been contracted previous to that date, took no notice when they were applied to by Memorialists, upon their being pressed by the Civil Courts to answer the claims preferred by certain creditors. Nor the Civil Court who have seen the Enayctnamahs above adverted to, regarded its tenure. Consequently, it becomes the bounden duty of Memorialists to represent that it is left to your Lordship alone to consider, how unjust it was on the part of the local Government to expose these poor Memorialists to such innumerable difficulties, while they have yielded to all the orders and wishes of Government, even at the loss and sacrifice of their due right of the one-third share of their paternal Estate, and agreed to take the small allowance fixed by Government, purely on the strength and reliance of the promises of the ruling Authorities.

19. Under these circumstances, your Memorialists most humbly and respectfully solicit that your Lordship will be pleased to take into your serious consideration the circumstances detailed in the foregoing paras., and issue orders to the local Government to bestow on Memorialists their one-third share to which they are justly entitled, and which they were quite unjustly deprived, by making over to them the Purgunnahs of Pentapaud, Goondoogolnoo, Yaloor, Cauvellee and Pedapaud, which were already under Circular alienation, with a certain amount of Government demand being fixed upon them, in accordance to the provisions of Regulation 4 of 1829; because by so conferring without detriment to the interests of the State, all the injustices and difficulties which your Memorialists have all along experienced will be remedied, and they will be also enabled to enjoy some comfort; if not, to grant at least the following requests for the sake of justice:—

1st.—To restore permanently to Memorialists the village Streeramaveram with the half Beriz as was originally conferred on them, or to favor another village in its stead.

2nd.—To levy the same amount of Peishcush as was stipulated by the Collector on Thungullamooddy and Chevendra Mootahs, i. e., Rupees 5,228 on the former, and Rupees 4,738 on the latter, and to give credit or repay such amount as was collected in excess from Memorialists; and 3rdly.—To favor them the 3rd village as was promised originally.

20. For which act of grace and justice, your Memorialists will ever remain as in duty bound.

Ever pray.

Read the proceedings in the Appeal of Rajah Ramachendra Appa Row versus Rajah Narasimha Appa Row, 20th April 1825.

No. 1167 of 1805 in the Zillah Court of Masulipatam.

No. 37 of 1809 in the Provincial Court for the Northern Division.

No. 40 of 1812 in the Court of Sudr Udalt.

Here enter No.

With the whole record of the case, Narasimha Appa Row by Petition, dated the 27th July 1805, sued his brother Rajah Ramachendra Appa Row in the Zillah Court of Masulipatam, for the recovery of a moiety of the Zemindary of Noozed, together with the sum of Rupees 1,48,196, being the amount of arrears from Kisty 1212, and the amount value of a moiety of the real and personal property left by their father and alleged to be in the possession of the defendant. The Zillah Court by a Decree dated the 24th January 1809, disallowed the Plaintiff's claim to a moiety of the Zemindary of Noozed, as also to the amount value of a moiety of the real and personal property of the family alleged to be in the possession of the defendant; but awarded to him that a pension be paid by the defendant at the rate of 300 Star Pagodas per mensem, to commence from the 12th day of July 1802, the date from which the Sannudi-Milkiet-Istimirar granted to the said defendant began to take effect. The Zillah Court further decreed that the defendant should pay all costs of suit amounting to Rupees 2,29,220.

Rajah Ramachendra Appa Row dissatisfied with the decree of the Zillah Court, appealed therefrom to the Provincial Court for the Northern Division by Petition, dated the 16th March 1809, and that Court by a Decree, dated the 29th June 1811 confirmed the decision of the Zillah Judge. As it related to the claim for a moiety of the Zemindary and of the paternal property alleged to be in the possession of Ramachendra Appa Row; but with respect to the pension to be allowed to Narasimha Appa Row, the Provincial Court, with reference to an allowance granted by Government for the joint maintenance of the parties while living together, fixed the amount at Madras Pagodas 280 per mensem, to commence from the 1st February 1805; when Narasimha Appa Row left his brother's house. The Provincial Court further adjudged that the Appellant should pay all costs of the suit.

Rajah Ramachendra Appa Row appealed from this decision to the Court of Sudr Udalt by Petition, dated the 19th August 1811; the Vakeel Narraina Sastry and Ghootur Roossol appeared for the said Appellant, and the Vakeel Shaik-Keeam-Ood-deen for the Respondent Narasimha Appa Row, and the pleadings of the parties have been heard and filed on Record.

The Court having maturely considered the whole of the Proceedings in this case, deemed it proper to make the following reference to their Hindoo Law Officers, viz:—A had two wives, the first of whom had one Son; B the second two Sons, C and D; A died, and B the son by the first wife was put in possession of the property; but on his failing to pay the Revenue assigned on it, the Government assumed possession of the Zemindary and passed a pension for the maintenance of B and C.

The brothers B and C, afterwards disagreeing, C left B's residence, and D who was but a child accompanied him. Subsequently to this disagreement, the Government was pleased to bestow the Zemindaree in an equal portions on B and C, granting to B two-thirds, and to C about one-third without any thing to D. Nothing is produced to shew that it was the intention of Government to disallow the claim of D as a branch of the family. Now D claims a portion of the property granted by Government to C according to law; D is entitled to prefer such claim against C. Has D any claim upon B? Can D prefer his claim against C, without also preferring his claim against B? What is the extent of D's claim upon C? Your answer is required to each of these questions separately.

To the foregoing reference the Hindoo Law officers mentioned the following answer, viz:—Upon consideration of all the circumstances stated in the question, it appears to us that B, C and D, the children of A, by two wives, never divided their paternal property, that the paternal inheritance, the Zemindary which was bestowed by the Government in equal portions upon B, the son of A by the 1st wife and upon C, one of the two sons (C and D) by the second wife having at that time with him his younger brother, D, then a child was so bestowed as a means of subsistence to them and not as a division according to law, and that the Government did not set aside the right of D in his paternal inheritance.

We must therefore declare that both according to the intentions of Government and according to Law, the three persons B, C and D having right in their paternal Estate.

Since according to which is laid down in Jagannethee and other Law Books, D is entitled to a third share of the paternal property, and since it does not appear which of the two, B or C is possessed of the share of D, we must declare it to him possessed both by B and C. Therefore, 1st D must institute his Suit on account of his share against both B and C. He cannot sue C alone.

2d. D has a right of action against B on account of his share.

3d. D must not bring his action against C, without bringing it also against B.

4th. D has a right of action for one-third of the whole paternal property, which is in the possession of B and C.

This is what is to be collected from Jagannethee and other Law books.

From the opinion of the Hindoo Law Officers of the Court of Sudr Udalt recorded above, it appears that according to Law, Narasimha Appa Row, the original Plaintiff in this case was not entitled to sue Rajah Ramachendra Appa Row, for his share of the paternal property, without sharing also the eldest brother Venkatanarasimha Appa Row, and the Court in consideration of the said opinion do order and adjudge that the decrees of the lower Courts be annulled, and that the Respondent Narasimha Appa Row, do pay all costs of the Suit in the Zillah and Provincial Courts as well as in this Court.

Ordered that a decree founded on these Proceedings be preferred for the signature of this Court.

The Court before concluding their Proceedings in this case, deem it incumbent upon them to notice the principle upon which the Decree of the Zillah Court is founded. The Zillah Judge disallow all the claims set up by the Plaintiff, and decrees that which the Plaintiff has not, but ought to have sued for, and his avowed object in giving this judgement is to spare the Plaintiff the notification of appealing in Paupers, as also to save him from prison to which he would probably be sent at the instance of the Pleaders of the Zillah Court. The Judge had doubtless did this himself, that his object was humane at least; but he must have forgotten that feelings of humanity cannot be indulged in a Court of Judicature without a departure from the Judicial character. The Court are willing to believe that the slightest reflection will be sufficient to convince the Zillah Judge that the principal upon which he proceeded in this instance is utterly erroneous, and that a judgement founded not on the simple merits of the case; but upon personal responsibility as affecting either of the parties in a Suit, must be altogether dispensed with, instead of pointing out and meeting the error of the Zillah Judge—the Provincial Court followed that error to the extent of granting to Narasimha Appa Row a pension which he did not claim, and with which on the contrary he declared himself to be dissatisfied; the irregularity of awarding that which is not claimed is obvious, and therefore ordered that Extract from these Proceedings be sent to the Provincial Court being willing to hope that the main notice of an error of this nature is sufficient to prevent its recurrence will explain from making any further observations on the subject. Precept commanding them to communicate the same for the information of the Judge in the Zillah of Masulipatam.

No. 47 of 1816. Original Suit in the Provincial Court for the Northern Division.
No. 4 of 1818 in the Court of Sudr Udalt.

Here enter No.

With the whole record of the case of Rajah Narasimha Appa Row, sued Rajah Venkata Narasimha Appa Row and Rajah Sobhanadry Appa Row, minor, by his mother and guardian Sectummah Row for the recovery of one-third of the Noozed Zemindaree held in an equal proportions by the said defendants, together with the net profits thereof for fourteen years, viz:—from Fusly 1212 to Fusly 1225, amounting in the aggregate to Rupees 8,42,636-10-8. He also said to recover the sum of Rupees 7,109-1-0, being the amount of costs decreed against him by this Court in Appeal No. 4 of 1812, wherein the late Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row, father of Rajah Sobhanadry Appah Row was Appellant, and the said Rajah Narasimha Appah Row was respondent.

The Suit was instituted in the Provincial Court for the Northern Division on the 25th September 1816, and that Court by decree dated the 30th June 1817 adjudged to the Plaintiff one-third of the several Pargunnahs, and Talooks of the Noozed Zemindary held by the two defendants respectively, together with the net profits thereof for fourteen years, viz:—Rupees 4,10,620 from the 1st defendant, and Rupees 4,32,016½ from the second defendant, amounting to Rupees 8,42,636½, the total sum claimed on this account; but they rejected the claim for reimbursement of costs incurred in the former Appeal to this Court.

From this decision Rajah Vencatanarasimha Appah Row and Rajah Sobhanadry Appah Row, minor, by Seetumamah Row, his mother and guardian appealed to the Court of Sudr Udalut by separate petitions, and the Pleadings of the parties have been heard and filed of Record.

Rajah Narasimha Appah Row originally sued his brother by the same mother, the late Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row, father of Rajah Sobhanadry Appah Row for the recovery of a moiety of that portion of the Noozed Zemindary which was held by him, together with the half of the real and personal property left by their father. The Zillah Court of Masulipatam, in which the Suit was instituted, rejected all his claims; but adjudged to him an allowance at the rate of Pagodas 300 per mensem payable by Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row. On an appeal to the Provincial Court for the Northern Division by the said Raja Ramachendra Appah Row, the decree of the Zillah Court was confirmed so far as it rejected the plaintiff's claims upon the Noozed Zemindary; and that part of it which regarded the payment of an allowance by Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row was modified. Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row appealed from this decision to the Court of Sudr Udalut, strictly speaking the only point for the Court's determination in that appeal was the Right of Rajah Narasimha Appah Row to the allowance which the Provincial Court had adjudged to be payable to him by Rajah Ramachendra Appah Row, and their decree might have been limited to setting aside the Decree of the Lower Courts; which in rejecting the original claims of the plaintiff, had adjudged to him that which he did not claim. The Plaintiff was obviously dissatisfied with the decision of the Lower Courts, and his regular course was to appeal from those decisions; that he did not pursue this course, is to be attributable perhaps partly to his poverty and partly to his ignorance of the correct mode of proceeding, while it was evident from the whole tenor of his pleadings that he believed his original claims would form the subject of consideration in the Appeal preferred by the opposite party although the very experience of the action had been charged.

On the other hand, the Sudr Court on perusing the records were impressed with the belief that Rajah Narasimha Appa Row had been excluded from a share of the Noozed Zemindary contrary to the intentions of the Government, and that the peculiar circumstances of the case were such as to warrant the Courts in exercising a jurisdiction in it. They shew reason however to doubt the correctness of the mode in which the Plaintiff had laid his action; and hence originated their reference to their Law officers, from whose answers it appeared that according to the Rules of the Hindoo Law, Rajah Narasimha Appa Row was not entitled to sue one brother without suing the other, the property of which he claimed a share being partly in possession of one, and partly in possession of the other brother. This claim too was for half of the portion held by the brother, to whom only about a third of the whole Zemindary appears to have been allotted; and it was therefore obvious that if his claim was tenable in other respects, it would not be admitted in its full extent against the then defendant.

A further consideration of the question with the information which has subsequently come before the Court with respect to the nature and extent of the powers exercised by the Government in the disposal of Zemindary, and with respect to the nature and extent of the rights formerly rested on the holders of their tenures, has satisfied the Court that they cannot interfere to modify the partition of the Noozed Zemindary made by the act of permanent settlement; but that the decision on the claim of Rajah Narasimha Appa Row, like that upon other claims of the same description must be governed by the law contained in Regulation XXV of 1802. In the preamble of that Regulation is described the uncertainty of the tenure by which Zemindaries had previously been held, an uncertainty which is obviously incompatible with the recognition of an hereditary right of succession. It is declared for the reasons stated, that an assessment shall be fixed on all land liable to the payment of public revenue; and it is then enacted that such assessment shall be fixed, the proprietary right to Estate of this description shall become rested in the Zemindars and on their heirs and lawful successors for ever.

It is plainly declinable from this Regulation that previously to the fixing of the permanent assessment, succession to Zemindary tenures was not governed exclusively by the laws of inheritance; but that the ruling power tolerated, abolished or dismissed of those tenures as might be considered most expedient for the purpose of realizing the public revenue due from the lands. It is clear therefore that in granting the Zemindary of Noozed in an equal proportions to the two original defendants, the British Government exercised a right which according to the declared usages of the country was rested in the uniting power, and as by the exclusion of the original Plaintiff, whether intentional or otherwise so known, Law was infringed,—the Courts are precluded from all jurisdiction in the case.

In the pleadings filed in this case, allusion is made to an opinion expressed in a letter of the Court of Sudr Udalut to the Judge of Vizagapatam, dated the 12th September 1804. It is sufficient on the present occasion to observe, that the opinion in question was given on an ex parte reference, and has been overruled by subsequent decisions in this Court. Allusion is also made to the decree of this Court in Appeal No. 9 of 1813, which adjudged to the Respondent in that Appeal, a right to hold as a dependant Talookdar of a portion of the Nandigamah Zemindary. But the question then at issue was essentially different from that which is now under consideration. In the latter case, a right to a portion of the Zemindary is claimed to the total exclusion of the present possessions from all right or title to that portion. In the former case, a claim was set up to hold a tenure dependent upon and subject to the Zemindar, and the decision of the Court in that case rested exclusively upon the distinct recognition by the Zemindar himself of the right which was claimed.

The Court having maturely considered the whole of the Proceedings in this case are decidedly of opinion, that the original Plaintiff's claim to a portion of the Noozed Zemindary is inadmissible under the Regulations enacted by the Government. The Court do therefore order and adjudge, that such part of the decree of the Provincial Court, as awarded to Rajah Narasimha Appah Row, one-third of the several Pargunnahs and Talooks of the Noozed Zemindary, held by Rajah Vencata Narasimha Appah Row, and Rajah Sobhanadry Appah Row respectively, together with the net profits thereof for fourteen years be set aside.

The Court see no ground for awarding to Rajah Narasimha Appa Row the imbursement of costs in Appeal No. 4 of 1812, and they accordingly confirm that part of the Provincial Court's decree by which this claim is rejected.

The Court do further order and adjudge, that the Appellant Rajah Narasimha Appah Row do pay all costs in the Provincial Court and in this Court.

A. D. 1829.—REGULATION IV.

A Regulation for annulling the Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar issued for the Zemindaries of Noozed and Ellore in the Zillah of Masulipatam, and for empowering the Government to issue new Sunnuds for the same.—Passed by the Governor-in-Council of Fort St. George on the 23rd June 1829, corresponding with the 12th of Aun of the year Virody, 1751st year of Saliwah, and with the 20th of Zelludge, 1244 Hijree.

I. Whereas the ancient lands of Noozed now known by the appellation of the Zemindaries of Noozed and Ellore respectively, situated in the Zillah of Masulipatam were formerly held by the Appah Row family; and whereas, previously to the permanent settlement of the Land Revenue the said lands, though never forfeited, had been requested by the Government from the last incumbent, who died leaving three sons,—the eldest son named Vencata Narasimha Appa Row by his 1st wife, the 2nd named Ramachendra Appah Row, and the 3d named Narasimha Appa Row, respectively by his 2d wife; and whereas at the period of the permanent settlement of the Revenue payable from the said lands, the Government of Fort Saint George resolved to restore them to the said family, without excluding any of its members therefrom; but the said third brother, though mentioned by name in letters of the Collector then laid before the Government, was not explicitly alluded to by the Board of Revenue or the special Commission who transmitted the same, nor his existence otherwise brought in a distinct and intelligible manner to the notice of the Government; on the contrary, the said eldest and youngest brothers, from similarity of name, were, on that occasion confounded together by the authorities at the Presidency, as one and the same person; and whereas from this mistake, Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar were issued, under Regulation XXV, 1802, granting that portion of the said lands now denominated the Ellore Zemindary to the said eldest brother Vencata Narasimha Appa Row, and that portion of the said lands now denominated the Noozed Zemindary to the said 2nd brother Ramachendra Appa Row, leaving the said 3rd brother Narasimha Appa Row totally unprovided for, and excluded from the said lands contrary to the express intention of the Government to restore them to the family; and whereas the said 3rd brother Narasimha Appa Row was then a minor, entirely dependent on his two elder brothers, who thus obtained the whole of the said family property; and whereas the said Narasimha Appa Row subsequently filed a Suit against the said Ramachendra Appa Row, his full brother by the same mother, for the recovery of a moiety of that portion of the said lands held by him, which came to a final decision before the Court of Sudr Udalut in Appeal No. 4 of 1812; and whereas in the said Appeal, as more fully explained in their subsequent decree in Appeal No. 4 of 1818, "The Sudr Court, on perusing the record, were impressed with the belief that Rajah Narasimha Appa Row had been excluded from a share in the Noozed Zemindary, contrary to the intention of the Government, and that the peculiar circumstances of the case were such as to justify the Courts in exercising jurisdiction in it. They saw reason however to doubt the correctness of the mode in which the Plaintiff had laid his action, and hence originated their reference to their Law officers, from whose answers it appeared, according to the rules of the Hindoo Law, "Rajah Narasimha Appa Row was not entitled to sue one brother, without suing the other; the property of which he claimed a share being partly in the possession of one, and partly in the possession of the other brother." This Suit was, on these grounds, dismissed with costs; and whereas the said Narasimha Appa Row accordingly instituted a 2nd Suit in the Provincial Court for the Northern Division against his said eldest brother Venkata Narasimha Appa Row, and the minor son and heir of his said second brother Ramachendra Row, then deceased, for one-third of the entire lands granted, as aforesaid, to his said two brothers respectively, and obtained from them a Decree in his favor. But an Appeal therefrom having been preferred, the said cause came to a final decision before the Sudr Udalut in Appeal No. 4 of 1818, in which the said Court, on further consideration, decided that his claims "must be governed by the law contained in Regulation XXV, 1802;" and that as by his exclusion "whether intentional or otherwise, no known law was infringed, the Courts are precluded from all jurisdiction in the case;" this Suit was dismissed accordingly, and whereas the said Narasimha Appa Row thereupon brought his claims to the notice of the Government of Fort Saint George, and after the most full and deliberate inquiry, during two successive Governments, they have been found to be substantially well-founded, and the Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar issued to his own said elder brothers have been ascertained to have been issued under a careless mistake or misapprehension, contrary to the express intentions of the granters in favor of the family; and whereas it would be unbecoming the character of a just Government to defer longer the reparation of an injury which originated in the defective and erroneous information furnished by its subordinate officers, and which the Courts have been unable to remedy, because they have declared that it exceeds their jurisdiction to annul a grant issued by Government under Regulation XXV of 1802; the Right Honorable the Governor in Council has therefore been pleased to pass this Regulation to take effect from and after its promulgation.

II. The Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar issued for the ancient Zemindary of Noozed consisting of the Purgunnahs of the Ellore and Condapilly Circars, now constituting respectively the Zemindaries of Ellore and Noozed, situated in the Zillah of Masulipatam are hereby declared null and void.

The Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar of Noozed and Ellore, are annulled.

III. The Government will issue new Sunnuds-i-Milkiet Istimrar for these lands, to the family of the Zemindar, from whom they were sequestered; granting a portion not less than two-thirds of the Ellore Zemindary, as now constituted, to the heir and representative of his eldest son, Venkata Narasimha Appa Row deceased, and a portion not less than two-thirds of the Noozed Zemindary as now constituted, to the heir and representative of his second son Ramachendra Appa Row deceased, a portion not exceeding one-third of each of the Zemindaries of Ellore and Noozed respectively, as now constituted, whether it shall be competent for the Government to resume for this purpose from their present holders, to his third son Narasimha Appa Row.

New sunnuds to be issued in certain proportion for these lands to the family of the Zemindar from whom they were sequestered.

But the permanent Assessment to remain unaltered.

V. This Regulation shall in one respect apply to, or effect any lands purchased or otherwise obtained, and now held by the several branches of the Appa Row family, which did not form an integral part of the ancient family lands, Noozed, sequestered by Government from the head of that family, previously to the permanent settlement of the land revenue.

IV. The Revenue fixed in permanency on the said Zemindaries respectively shall continue unaltered as hitherto; but shall be assessed upon each portion according to the rules now in force, for the distribution of the permanent Assessment on lands sub-divided.

To

RAJAH SIMHADRY APPA ROW BAHADOOR.

In consequence of yourself, your brother and your family having suffered a distressed circumstance, the Board of Revenue intimated their desire of redressing you as per order of the Honorable the Governor in Council, expressed in Extract Minutes of Consultation, dated 17th November 1837, to confer on you two Circar villages, one of them called Ravecherla as Surva Mokhasah, and the other Streeramavaram, which is assessed at Rupees 1061-1-6 per annum, on half Beriz for the first five years, with a view of that latter mentioned village being brought into an improved state of its cultivation, and after which period, that the full amount of Beriz may be permanently continued to be paid; thus in making over to you the abovenamed two villages as per order of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th November, the village Streeramavaram is now made over to you with the half Beriz of 530-8-9 per annum, from Fusly 1247 to Fusly 1251 while subsequently, i. e., from Fusly 1252, the full amount of Beriz of 1061-1-6, should be paid annually by you to Circar according to the fixed instalments as per account herewith forwarded; therefore, the amount of Kists now due from October to January of the current Fusly being Rupees 165-12-10, and the amount of balance due out of the Tuccavee granted to the Ryots in the current Fusly for the improvement of the village in question, as well as the amounts of Maramut expences and the wages of Sibbundies, being Rupees 423-15-1; after deducting the amount already realized, of which deducting the sum of 250 Rupees due by the Ryots on account of Tuccavee, there remains 173-15-1, or in the whole Rupees 339-11-11, should be paid into the Hoozoor Treasury as soon as this Enayetnamah has reached you.

As orders have been this day forwarded to the Tahsildars of Ellore and Gollapully Talooks, for the purpose of making over to you the above said Streeramavaram village, together with its produce of the current year, you should issue orders to the Ryots that they may deliver the balance of Tuccavee to the Tahsildar of Ellore Talook, and take charge of the abovenamed two villages with all their titles, and grant a receipt for the same. After so doing, you should not only take every care to satisfy the Ryots in all reasonable ways, but also be careful to pay into the Hoozoor Treasury the amount of Peishoush annually, according to the fixed instalments, lest there fall any arrear, and so continue to enjoy both the said village and the other Ravacherla as Surva Mokhasah and live happily.

As the above said villages were bestowed on you by Government for maintenance, it should be clearly understood that they shall not be liable to any debt contracted up to this day either by yourself or by your ancestors.

The Cowle for Streeramavaram village will be obtained from Government.

As regard allowances payable by Rajah Narriah Appa Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of Nedadavole, Sobhanadry Appa Row Bahadoor, Zemindar of Noozed, the former Rupees 400 and the latter Rupees 200 as per agreement executed by them under date the 4th February 1835, being not paid to you from the month of September 1837, Enayetnamahs were forwarded to those Zemindars that the standing balance may be now paid and continue henceforward to pay up monthly the reasonable allowance, further it should be understood that measures will be adopted for the due realization of the standing balance of the allowance according to the instalments as per order of the Board of Revenue. You should also file a Caboolyet in the Hoozoor on account of the village of Streeramavaram.

3. In the order of the 20th July last 1844 is embodied a brief history gathered from the Government records of the circumstances under which the Memorialists base their claims for consideration.

4. The Memorialists' object was, if possible, to obtain possession of one third share of the forced and exorbitant grain duties, failing which they sought:

I. That the Village of Cheruvu
may be permanently restored on half share as originally conferred upon them, or another Village granted instead.

II. That the amount of Peshkash which they pay on
the

the two Moostahs of Tangulla:
-undi and Chevendra may be reduced to the sum originally stipulated by the Collector, viz. Rupees 228 in the former, and Rupees 738 in the latter case, and that credit may be given for,
or re-payment made of,
such sums as may have been collected in excess
from them.

III. That a third Village may be granted to them as originally promised.

To these requests Venkatadri Appa Rao has in his second Memorial added
two more, viz.

IV. That orders may be issued to the Civil Courts in view to relieve him from responsibility

responsibility for all liabilities and

V. That the Jaghir Village of Navichehla may, on account of its unproductiveness, be exempted from all liability to tax.

5. In regard to the primary request the Govt. remarked that considering what had passed the claim to a share in the original Peltate could not be re-entertained.

The other points have now been reported upon by the Board of Revenue and they will be considered in order.

From Mr. Thornhill to Govt. 18th 1842.
para 2.

From Mr. P. J. P. to Govt. 18th 1842.
paras 3-4.

The Board were asked to report whether there was reason to suppose that the Peltate of this Village was originally fixed at too high a rate. Both the late Acting Colls and the present Colls of the Krishna District think that such was the case, and the Board concur with them in thinking that the Peltate fixed was considerably higher than was warranted by the assets considering that the Village was granted as a means of improving the Memorialists' condition. The Board further suggest, in case the Government should be disposed to return the Village to the Memorialists' family, that the Peltate might be fixed at $\frac{2}{3}$ of the average Collections.

Collections for the last 17 years.
The Collections of this period, amount, according to the Statement given in para 8
of Mr. Ford's letter, to Rs.
6,817; the average would be
Rs. 400 and two-thirds of that
Rs. 660. This exceeds the sum formerly paid viz Rs. 500. which was half the regular peshkush of the Village, but the Board are of opinion, looking at improvement in prices, that the grantee would not again
fall into arrears.

I Tangulamudi and Chavandra Moolahs. In the 5th and two following Paras of their proceedings the Board express an opinion, based on the Collector's reports, that if the two

two Moolahs in question
do not yield an annual net profit of Nagrupees 7200
per annum, a reduction in the Peshkush should be made. They are upon that view because it was in lieu of an allowance of 600 Rs. a month paid jointly by the Vozjed and Kotadars Zamindars that the two Moolahs were assigned.
The parish committee would be the Board think
to make a careful valuation of the assets of these villages, and allowing for maintenance, operation and cost of collection, to adjust the Peshkush accordingly.

The

III The third prayer
of the Memorialists
was that a third village
might be granted them
as originally promised.

The Collector reports that no record exists
of any such promise having been made. It does not appear whether the Memorialists have been called upon to produce any proof in support of their assertion.

IV The fourth request,
as stated in para 4
above is obviously unattainable.

V The Board think
that compliance with this fifth, which relates to the Village of Navichurda

is also imprudent. No reason is assigned, the Collector merely stating that the prayer is untenable.

Should the Government determine to consider favorably each of the foregoing requests, as the Board think may reasonably be inquired into with the ultimate prospect of a decision
in favor of the Memorialists it would seem unnecessary, referring to para 29, 40 20 July 1863. & 1344,
to forward these Memorials to the Secretary of State. In virtually informing the Memorialists of the course which may be adopted in each particular, they, or their representatives, may be told to present a further Memorial if dissatisfied with the measure of relief afforded to them.

7 It may be well
too, alluding to the concluding part of para. 2
Board's Prog. 27 April 1864, V^o 2542, to remind the Collector that, as Sinhadri Appanna is no longer alive, it will be his duty to see that the interests of the family of the deceased are not endangered in carrying into effect such modifications of former orders

may eventually be determined upon.

ally fixed at too ^{high} a rate.
Both the late Acting Collector and the present
Collector of the Krishna District think that such was the case, and the Board concur with them in thinking that the Reshch
fixed was considerably higher than was warranted by the assets considering that the village was granted as a means of improving the memorials' condition. The Board further suggest, in case the Govt. should be disposed to return the village to the Memorialist family, that the Reshch be fixed at $\frac{2}{3}$ of the average collections for the last 17 years. The collections of this period, amount, according to the statement given in para 8 of Mr. Soorda's letter, to Rs. 16317, the average would be Rs. 960, and two-thirds of that Rs. 640. This exceeds the sum formerly paid viz. Rs. 530 - which was half the regular pesh-cash of the village but the Board are of opinion, looking at improvement in prices, that the grantee would not again fall into arrears.

II. Sangalau^u di and Pheendra Mootahs.

In the 5th & two following Paras of their Proceedings the Board express an opinion, based on the collector's report reports, that if the two Mootahs in question do not yield an annual net profit of Rupees 7200, a reduction in the Peshcash should be made. They fix upon that sum because it was in lieu of an allowance of 500 Rs. a month paid jointly by the Mootahs and Mada Darole Landholders that the two Mootahs were assigned. The fairest course would be, the Board think, to make a careful valuation of the assets of the villages, and allowing for variation of season and cost of collection, to adjust the Peshcash accordingly.

III. The third prayer

was that a third village might be granted them as originally promised. The Collector reports that no record exists of any such promise having been made.

IV. The fourth request as stated in pared above is considered inadmissible.

V. The Board thinks
that compliance with the fifth, which relates to the Village of Ravicherla is also inseparable.

The

The Government
thinks the Board
for the village of Stru-maver and to the realisation the terms
justified and to institute an enquiry into affairs of the village
proceeding the District Tangalamar and Karnataka in view to house on the basis justified. As to the in requests the Government agree with the Board that there are no grounds for the grant of a third village; or for exempting Ravicherla from all land tax; and that the fourth proposal

obviously inadmissible.

The Board to direct the Collector to make the new lists on their representatives, acquainted with the course which the Government have determined upon in regard to their representatives. They should also be informed that the Government deem it unnecessary to forward their present views to the Secretary of State, but that they are at liberty if dissatisfied with the measure of relief afforded them to present a
