No. 307. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th July 1864, No. 4,739.

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated 9th July 1864, No. 94:—

1. I have the honor to submit a report on the subject of the accompanying Petitions* bearing endorsements of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th May and 10th June 1864 respectively.

* Nos. 1,523 and 1,720 of 1864.

2. These two Petitioners are the widow and daughter-in-law of the deceased Haridasappa Nayadu, a Pensioned Poligar, to whom an allowance of Rupees 1,458-5-4 per annum was granted by Government. On his death, which occurred on the 24th February 1860, a report was made by the late Collector to the Board of Revenue on the 16th July 1861, recommending that a moiety of the allowance which was drawn by the deceased, viz., Rupees 729 per annum, or 60 Rupees per mensem, should be continued to the Petitioners. The Board of Revenue in their remarks to Government on the above report, dated 8th August 1861, No. 4,278, concurred in the Collector's recommendation, and also suggested that the allowance should be granted to the widow and daughter-in-law (Petitioners) jointly, and to be continued during the life of the last survivor. The Government, in their Proceedings dated 15th October 1861, No. 1,992, assented to the recommendation of the Board of Revenue. Ever since this, Petitioners have lived jointly and continued to draw the allowance without any dispute whatever.

3. Lately in consequence of some dispute in the family, the first Petitioner Venkatamma, wanted to draw her portion of the allowance Rupees 30 separately, but the seceond Petitioner, her mother-in-law Mangammah, would not consent to this on the ground that she is the principal heir to succeed to the whole allowance, and consequently it remains undrawn from February 1864.

4. To avoid further disputes between the Petitioners, I beg to recommend that the allowance in question should be divided at the rate of Rupees 30 each per mensem with arrears due from February to June 1864.

ENCLOSURES Nos. 1 & 2.—Petitions.

As the Government were pleased to direct that the pension of Rupees 60 per mensem should be continued to the two women jointly, the Board resolve to forward the Collector's proposal for the Orders of Government. There seems to be no objection to a division of the pension.

No. 308. ORDER THEREON, 20th August 1864, No. 1,512.

Miscellaneous.

The arrangement proposed by the Board is sanctioned.
