In obedience to the Civil Paymaster's Memorandum (copy enclosed), dated 27th November 1863, No. 1,562, I have the honor to submit duly revised the Contingent bills from May 1862 to April 1863, and respectfully solicit the sanction of Government to the charges exhibited therein, as also the special sanction to a charge of 10 Rupees, being batta paid to my Head Writer when sent to Neddivattam on special duty.

No. 309. ORDER THEREON, 29th January 1864, No. 153.

1. With this letter the Superintendent of the Government Chinchona Plantations submits his Contingent bills for 1862-63, sent to the Acting Civil Paymaster, but returned by him in order that the charges which they represent may be sanctioned by Government before they are admitted by his Office.

2. The Government observe that in so returning the bills in question, Mr. Raynor has apparently lost sight of the Order dated 18th May 1863, No. 855, in which they authorized the Civil Paymaster to audit and pass the accounts of the Superintendent, referring to Government only in regard to expenditure of the propriety of which he might entertain doubts. They resolve therefore to transmit the bills to the Acting Civil Paymaster to be disposed of agreeably to the instructions contained in that Order.

3. The Government sanction the batta of ten Rupees paid to the Superintendent's Head Writer when he was sent to Neddivattam on special duty.
