Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th September 1864.

No. 111. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel F. J. B. PRIESTLEY, Superintendent, Revenue Survey, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Chepauk, 22nd August 1864, No. 640/27:—

SIR,

* Dated 19th August 1864, No. 907/204.
† Dated 18th " " " 338.

1. I have the honor to submit two original letters, one* from Captain Hessey, Deputy Superintendent No. 1 Revenue Survey, Salem, and the other† from Lieutenant Cloeté, his First Assistant.

2. Lieutenant Cloeté applies for two months' privilege leave, to which indulgence I am of opinion he is well entitled from the very satisfactory reports received of him. The Civil

Fort Saint George Gazette, dated 23rd June 1863, page 1,032. Auditor, however, in reply to an enquiry from Lieutenant Cloeté, states that he cannot claim to have served 22 months uninterruptedly inasmuch as he was relieved of his Police duties at Cuddalore on the 7th August, and joined the Survey at Salem on the 9th idem. I trust Government will see fit to rule that Lieutenant Cloeté has been employed within the meaning of the order in question for 22 months, or that to set the matter at rest Lieutenant Cloeté may be permitted to draw two days' pay and thus fill up what is by the Civil Auditor considered the breach in his Civil service. The case adduced by Captain Hessey, of a Covenanted officer being transferred from the Revenue to the Judicial branch, without loss of pay or service seems apposite.

No. 112. ORDER THEREON, 8th September 1864, No. 1,636.

Miscellaneous.

Lieutenant Cloeté was in fact transferred from one Civil Department (the Police) to another (the Revenue Survey), though according to the usual form he was gazetted as resigning his appointment in the former. Under these circumstances, the Government consider it would be inequitable that the two days occupied by that officer in passing from his Police to his Survey station should deprive him not only of allowances for that period, but also of reckoning his service in the Police Department towards privilege leave. The latter will accordingly be allowed.

For order.

It Cloete was in fact transferred from one Civil Dept. (the Police) to another (the Revenue Survey), though according to the usual form he was gazetted as resigning his appointment in the former. Under these circumstances the Gov^t considers it would be unfair to the latter officer to deprive him of his pay & to deprive him of his leave. It is therefore recommended that he should be allowed to draw two days pay & to avail himself of leave for 2 months.
