Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 6th October 1864.

No. 49. Read the following letter from R. W. LODWICK, Esq., Civil Paymaster, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort Saint George, 18th August 1864, No. 107 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor with reference to Government Order No. 1,461, dated 13th instant, to state that the Government Order No. 193, dated 29th January 1863, to which it is presumed His Excellency in Council refers when alluding to the practice of this Presidency being at variance with that prescribed by the Government of India, seems to have reference to the appointment of Assistants by Collectors and not to meet a case like that of Mr. Chase who, as next senior Officer, assumed charge from Mr. Newill.

2. It did not appear to me that the Board had power to grant deputation allowances in such a case, and I considered that such an appointment required to be regularly gazetted.

3. I am not aware of any order which forbids Government delegating their authority to grant acting allowances to such a body as the Board, though, as far as I am aware, it is in other Presidencies usual for all acting appointments to be gazetted where Covenanted Officers are concerned.

4. Should Government consider that a reference to the Supreme Government is necessary, under their Order No. 5,922, of the 1st December 1863, I will make one, but I submit that if the Board are required invariably to use the word acting when they desire deputation to be drawn by an Officer no reference will be needed.

No. 50. ORDER THEREON, 6th October 1864, No. 1,835.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government observe that no allusion was made or intended to the order quoted by Mr. Lodwick in paragraph 1 of the foregoing letter. The Government merely pointed out that the ruling on which he relied was inapplicable to the case under consideration.

2. The Government do not gazette Officers who are in charge only to act, their assumptions and delivery of charge are gazetted and nothing more is necessary.

3. No reference to the Government of India is requisite.
