No 1675

Memorandum

The Inspector General has had under his consideration the transfer of the Chumanjet Salt Pans of Madras District to South Arcot.

2. The papers relating to this transfer were not communicated to him and he was not at all aware of the limited nature of the transfer and especially that no change in the Magisterial jurisdiction was permitted.

3 The Inspector General is satisfied that inconvenience has arisen and will continue if the old state of things is not reverted to.

4 From and after the 1st September the Madras Police will again take charge of the Chumanpet Salt Pans. The South Arcot Police will withdraw from that date.
