Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd October 1864.

No. 286. Read the following letter from J. FRASER, Esq., Officiating Collector of Godavery District, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Cocanada, 5th October 1864, No. 16 :—

SIR,

1. With reference to the Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, under date 12th April 1864, and the order thereon of same date No. 612, I beg to forward a plan, according to scale, of that part of the Rajahmundry Fort rampart on which Mr. Gompertz's house is built. The plan defines the limits of the actual rampart inwards clearly.

2. I have seen the spot myself, and consider that it would be sufficient if 200 feet of the rampart each way from the house itself were granted to Mr. Gompertz. In the plan, the dotted red lines mark 200 feet from the boundary of a small space levelled on the top of the rampart for house and surrounding flower garden.

3. The space I propose to be given will include all that is necessary. It is not intended, I believe, to remove any more of the rampart to the south of the house than is now being taken away. A portion of that now standing to the west of the house will probably be removed by and by to fill up the old Fort ditch.

No. 287. ORDER THEREON, 22nd October 1864, No. 1,955.

Miscellaneous.

The Government would limit the grant of the ground in question to Mr. Gompertz to 150 feet south and 200 feet west of the house. The Board of Revenue will instruct the Collector accordingly.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd October 1864.

No. 284. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd October 1864.

Read the following Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 27th September 1864, No. 1,778 :—

The only other point in which it occurs to the Board that Act XX of 1863 is defective, is that it makes no provision for voluntary resignation of the appointment of Committee man; but It is not likely that this point escaped attention when the Act was framed, and it is probably not necessary to provide for legalising such resignation, while the Board doubt the expediency of offering unnecessary facilities for getting rid of a thankless office. They therefore have, no further amendment to propose in the Act.

No. 285. ORDER THEREON, 22nd October 1864, No. 1,954.

Miscellaneous.

Order, dated 19th August 1864, No. 1,499.
Do. dated 27th September ,, No. 1,778.

1. Resolved that these Proceedings, together with the orders noted in the margin, be referred to the Legislative Department, in order that the Supreme Government may be moved to supply the defect in Act XX of 1863, noticed by the Advocate General in his opinion, dated 15th September 1864.

2. The Government also think it necessary that Section IX of the Act should provide for resignation, so as to admit of persons being elected by the community in lieu of those, who, as they desire to be relieved, may naturally be supposed unwilling to discharge the duties of their offices.
