PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE,

Dated 22nd January 1864.

No. 437.

Sanctioning the continuance of Rama Nayadu's pension to Timma Nayadu as well as the payment of the arrears, and observing that the Tahsildar should be fined for his neglect.

Under the authority vested in them by Government Order dated 27th August 1861, No. 1,719,* the Board of Revenue sanction the continuance of the pension in question to Timma Nayadu, son of the deceased Rama Nayadu. This Order will take effect from the death of Vencatappa Nayadu, referred to in the Board's Proceedings, No. 6,076, dated 11th September 1862, and the arrears due to him as well as those that have accrued since will be paid to Timma Nayadu subject to the audit of the Civil Paymaster. The Tahsildar should be fined for his neglect in having failed to report on the case for so long a period.

Read the following Tabular Report from the Acting Collector of Cuddapah, dated Jammalamadgu, 18th December 1863, on a lapsed Poligar Pension in the District of Cuddapah:—

Number.	Taluk and Village. Extent and value of the entire Inam.	When and by whom granted. Name of the original grantee. Sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity, or service; if service, nature of the duty prescribed by the grant.	Name of the last holder, date of his decease, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased, and that held by other members.	Family left by the deceased and name and age of the parties, their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Yerravaripaliem in Kalakada Taluk. An annual allowance of Rupees 350, or Rupees 29-2-8 per mensem entered in No. 87 of Mr. Ross's Register, Statement X.	Granted to the original grantee Timma Nayadu by Colonel Munro under date the 12th July 1801, and renewed in the name of the last incumbent Rama Nayadu, under sanction of the Board of Revenue as contained in their Proceedings dated 11th September 1862, No. 6,076. Sunnuds, &c, are not forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, and privileges, &c.	Rama Nayadu, the last holder of the allowance, died on the 31st July 1862. He was son of the original grantee.	The whole amount of the allowance was held by the deceased.	1 Latchmamma, daughter of the deceased, aged 13 years. 1 Latchmamma Nayakuralu, elder widow of the elder brother of the deceased, aged 51 years. 1 Mangamma Nayakuralu, daughter of do. aged 21 years. 1 Mangamma Nayakuralu, second widow of the elder brother of the deceased, aged 37 years. 1 Timma Nayadu, adopted son of do., aged ten years. — 5 They are reported to earn their livelihood tolerably well, and they possess also Inam lands assessed at Rupees 194-4-9, and Puttah lands assessed at Rupees 12-3-0.	On the death of Vencatappa Nayadu the elder son of the original grantee by his first wife, a report was made to the Board of Revenue by the late Collector under date the 27th August 1862, recommending that Rama Nayadu, his undivided younger brother, may be allowed to succeed to the allowance, but this latter individual also died before the receipt of the Board's Proceedings dated 11th September 1862, No. 6,076, sanctioning that arrangement. The deceased Rama Nayadu had a son named Timma Nayadu, who was said to have been adopted by the late Vencatappa Nayadu, but this adoption was not formal as reported by the late Collector. The Head Assistant Collector in charge of the Sub-division recommends that the allowance may be continued to Timma Nayadu, the legitimate son of the deceased Rama Nayadu, with arrears in which recommendation the Acting Collector concurs, and begs that arrears due to the deceased Vencatappa Nayadu and Rama Nayadu from 1st September 1860 to 31st July 1862, already sanctioned by the Board in their Proceedings above quoted, together with that from the date of the deceased Rama Nayadu's death, viz, from 1st August 1862, may also be paid to Timma Nayadu. The delay that has occurred in representing this to the Board has been occasioned in the Office of the Tahsildar of the Kalakada, who being called upon to explain the reason of the delay, has accounted for it in any thing but in a satisfactory manner. He has accordingly been warned that a recurrence of such remissness will be brought to the notice of the Board of Revenue.

This individual was stated to have been adopted by Vencatappa Nayadu, but the adoption was not formal.
