Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 27th October 1864.

No. 361. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd September 1864, No. 6,243.

Read the following letter from V. H. LEVINGE, Esq., Collector of Madura, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 11th August 1864, No. 207 :—

1. With reference to the Board's Proceedings, dated 2nd July, conveying the order of Government in the Revenue Department, dated 29th June last, No. 1,109, I beg to submit a new list of persons to receive maintenance from the pension drawn by Jamali Oodiar Servaigar, and the amount proposed to be assigned to each Jamali Oodiar agrees to the distribution of the pension according to the said list.

2. I beg to explain that the survivors amongst the individuals whose names appear in the list prepared in 1852, and submitted by Mr. McDonell with his letter, dated 26th February last, No. 47, have all been provided for with the exception of six persons noted in the margin, as will be seen from the remarks and foot note in the list.

Nos. 18 19, 20, 21 and 35, as also one in No. 12 on the list of 1852.

3. No. 18 is Shevasami Servaigar, the individual alluded to in paragraph 2 of the Government Order above quoted, and is a wealthy man possessing independent means. Dorakannu Authaul, No. 19, is the mother of the above individual. No. 20 is Devakoonjaram, a married woman under the protection of her husband who is well able to afford to maintain himself and his family without any extra assistance. Aiyasami Servai, No. 35, who was only in receipt of Annas 10-8, and Marudu Servai, No. 12, a recipient of Annas 5-4, are said to have sufficient means of livelihood, and the small amounts allotted to them are scarcely worth having. Pensioner refuses to allow any share to No. 21, who he alleges has become a prostitute.

4. The Pensioner Jamali Oodiar Servaigar was shown in the list of 1852 as a recipient of Rupees 6-10-8 per mensem, which is now increased to Rupees 14. This sum is not very great, considering that he is the head of the family, the father of four children, and that he has no other income. Hitherto he had been enjoying as lapses all the sums entered in the names of the different recipients as they died off. He has to employ a Vakeel to draw the whole pension, and other servants to carry it to the village he lives in, for distribution to himself, and the other recipients.

5. Nine individuals are now newly added to the list. The first six are heirs or relatives of certain deceased persons entered in the list of 1852, who are entitled to participate in the pension. The other three are the pensioner's brothers who have their own family and children to maintain, and are no doubt entitled to separate allowances; Rupees 5 is assigned to each, which is not too much for them.

6. It will be seen from the list now submitted that a slight increase is made in the pensions of certain individuals as far as circumstances will allow.

7. With reference to the marginal Board Petitions, forwarded to me under date the 23rd ultimo, I beg to submit that Petitioner in No. 69 is the pensioner Jamali Oodiar. He prays that this case be speedily disposed of, as he is put to great distress by the stoppage of his pension. This calls for no remark.

Nos. 69, 147, 149, 152, 146, 150, 151, 154, 155, 148, 153, and 313.

Petitioners in Nos. 147, 149 and 152 are provided for in the new list in Nos. 12, 9 and 19.

Petitions Nos. 146, 150, 151, 154 and 155, are from persons entered in Nos. 21, 35, 12, 20 and 18 on the list of 1852, and referred to in paragraph 3 as not entitled to any share in the pension.

The names of Petitioners in Nos. 148 and 153 are not in the list of 1852; they call themselves heirs of certain deceased. The pension being a life-grant, claims put forward by such do not deserve any notice.

Petition No. 313 is a Mahazernama from the above-mentioned Petitioners.

8. In conclusion I beg to remark that no better arrangement can be made in the case. The claims of all have been duly considered in preparing the list called for by the Board. The persons struck out of the list are a few who can support themselves. I would therefore recommend that the pension stopped be continued to Jamali Oodiar Servaigar with arrears, on the understanding that he pay regularly the sums allotted to the respective individuals named.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

ABSTRACT.—A new list of persons entitled to maintenance from the pension drawn in the name of Jamali Oodiar Servaigar and of the amount assigned to each.

ENCLOSURES Nos. 2 to 13.—Petitions.

1. Ordered that the list furnished with the above letter be submitted to Government with reference to paragraph 9 of Government Order, No. 1,109, dated 29th June 1864, and the Board's recommendation that the distribution shown in the list be approved.

2. The entire pension of Rupees 66-10-8 will of course continue to be registered in the name of Jamaly Oodiar Shervaigar who will, however, be required to pay the several members on the new list their respective shares, on pain of having the whole pension stopped should he fail to do so.

3. The Petitions referred to in the margin of paragraph 7 of the Collector's above letter will be disposed of on receipt of the Government orders on these Proceedings.

No. 362. ORDER THEREON, 27th October 1864, No. 1,991.

Miscellaneous.

The list submitted with these Proceedings is approved, and the continuance of the pension of Rupees (66-10-8) sixty-six, Annas ten and Pico eight with arrears in the name of Jamali Oodiar Servaigar for the support of himself and of the individuals named in the above list is sanctioned.
