Read the following letter from J. W. B. DYKES, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 17th October 1864, No. 334:—

1. Vadlamudi Rangaya, the Salt Superintendent of the Gogulapalli division, having fallen seriously ill and applied for sick leave, the Assistant Superintendent of the division, Sileman Khan, was appointed to act as Superintendent, on a moiety of his own and a moiety of the Superintendent's salary during the latter's illness, and one Amperayani Nagaya was appointed to act as Assistant Superintendent on the remaining moiety of the salary of the post.

2. The Civil Paymaster has disallowed the pay of both the men in question, and only passed to Sileman Khan the moiety of his pay proper due to Amperayani Nagaya acting for him, on the ground that neither man has passed the Special Test prescribed for the office of the Salt Superintendent.
