Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 16th November 1864.

No. 201. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 10th November 1864 :—

Read the Civil Paymaster's Endorsement, dated 8th November 1864, on Mr. Deputy Collector Locke's application for privilege leave, declaring him eligible to the three month's leave applied for.

1. The Board of Revenue resolve to grant Mr. Locke three months' Privilege leave, and to recommend to Government that the Presidency Town Deputy Collector V. Rungaswami Ayengar, be placed in temporary charge of the Huzur Treasury Department, and vested with the usual Magisterial powers.

2. The Board have ascertained from the Collector that, as a temporary arrangement, the above proposal is unobjectionable.

No. 202. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 11th November 1864.

Read the following letter from E. G. R. FANE, Esq., Collector of Madras, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Sydapet, 11th November 1864, No. 514 :—

SIR,

1. In case the Government should see fit to grant Mr. Locke the privilege leave he applied for, I beg to recommend either that Mr. Smith, the Salt Deputy Collector, be put in charge of the Treasury, and Mr. Storr, the Assistant Collector, in charge of the Salt, or that Mr. Smith should be put in charge of the Treasury, and the Madras Deputy Collector Rungaswami Iyengar be put in charge of the Salt in addition to his other duties.

2. The last seems to be the best arrangement, as it was once before tried when Mr. Smith obtained leave to go to Bangalore, and answered perfectly.

3. If Mr. Smith is put in charge of the Treasury, I beg he may, under Section 23 of the Criminal Procedure Code, be invested with the full powers of a Magistrate, as otherwise he cannot be of the same assistance to me that Mr. Locke was.

Submitted to Government with the request that in substitution for the arrangement proposed in the Board's Proceedings dated 10th November 1864, Mr. Smith now in charge of the Salt Department may be placed temporarily in charge of the Treasury with Magisterial powers, and that the Salt Department be entrusted to the Town Deputy Collector in conjunction with his own duties, which arrangement was on a former occasion found to work well on a temporary emergency.

No. 203. ORDER THEREON, 16th November 1864, No. 2,105.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Government approve the arrangement suggested by the Board of Revenue in the first of the papers above recorded. They are averse to take away Mr. Smith from the Salt Department for three months.

2. Orders will be issued from the Judicial Department for vesting Rungaswamy Iyengar with the usual Magisterial powers.
