	240

1. A theft of postage labels of the value of Rupees 240 as noted was lately committed in the Wynad Talook Cutcherry.

2. The parties suspected were the Massaljee of the Cutcherry, his mother, and her husband. A search made in their house led to the discovery of labels worth 55 Rupees.*

* 220 four Annas labels.

3. The Massaljee, the first prisoner, was sentenced by the Deputy Magistrate of Wynad to two years rigorous imprisonment, and his mother and her husband, the second and third prisoners, to six months rigorous imprisonment each, and both (i. e., second and third prisoners) to pay a fine of 185 Rupees, the value of the unrecovered portion of the stolen labels.
