Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
11*th February* 1864.

Nos. 184, 185. Dated 11*th February* 1864, No. 256.

1. Resolved that the attention of the Board of Revenue be drawn to the report in the "Athenæum and Statesman" of the 6th instant, of the trial of Poliah Chetty on a charge of having offered a bribe to some of the Clerks of the Madras Stamp Office.

2. One of the witnesses Teruvengadacharry is reported to have admitted in his cross examination that he had "paid a bribe of 200 Rupees to Mr. A. H. Clarke for promotion to his "present appointment, and also disbursed an additional sum of Rupees 300 towards liquidating "that gentleman's debts." If the report is correct, which Mr. Norfor can easily state, Teruvengadacharry should at once be suspended and careful enquiry instituted into the matter. Mr. Norfor should be also called upon to state what steps he has already taken in the matter.
