the proceeds being appropriated for the repairs of the buildings. The Inams were finally resumed in Fusly 1254 (1814-45) apparently because no person came forward to undertake their management, and were included among the assessable lands.

5. The Inam Commissioner and Mr. Purvis having corresponded with each other on the subject of the resumed endowments, came to the conclusion that the allotment of fresh Inams for the support of the Chuttrum would be preferable to the restoration of the old lands.

6. Under the above circumstances, and as the revised plan forwarded by Mr. Morris shows that the comfort of all classes has been pretty fairly consulted in the way in which accommodation in the Chuttrum has been distributed, the Board support Mr. Morris' recommendation that the Chuttrum be endowed with a grant of the maximum value allowed by the rules.

No. 263.

ORDER THEREON, 18th February 1864, No. 293.

It does not appear to the Government that the accommodation afforded by the Chuttrum in question is fairly apportioned among the several classes of the Native community. They cannot therefore sanction a grant of the extent recommended by the Board as an endowment to the building, and resolve to restrict it to waste land of the annual value of Rupees 40. The Board will issue the necessary instructions to the Collector.

Call for a plan of the Choultry at Rajanagarum with certain other information.

From G. N. TAYLOR, Esq., Inam Commissioner, to A. PURVIS, Esq., Collector of the Godavery District, dated Coimbatore, 19th February 1863, No. 45.

In reply to your letter of the 26th September last, No. 53, I have the honor to inform you that it does not, in my opinion, appear expedient to restore to the Choultry at Rajanagaram the Inam lands formerly possessed by it as recommended by Deputy Collector M. Venkatachellum. The Inam lands in question are of doubtful validity, and were resumed more than 15 years ago, and could not now be restored without a considerable quit-rent being imposed on them, which in all probability would not have sufficient funds for the due maintenance of the Choultry. Under these circumstances, I agree with you that the allotment of a fresh Inam, under the rules now in force, appears by far the more preferable plan.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

Memorandum of Inams attached to the Choultry at Rajanagaram in the Godavery District.

No.	Names of Villages	Acres.	Remarks.
1	Ganapilli...	40	This was not entered in the permanent accounts, but in the Sub-division accounts of Fasli 1221 as granted by the villagers for the support of Choultry in Prajotpati (A. D. 1811-12), and was continued till 1853, in which it was resumed on the ground that there is no one to conduct the management of the Choultry.
2	Narendrapuram...	10	Do. but a subsequent alienation for the support of the Choultry. The Inam Deputy Collector fixed one-fourth of assessment as quit-rent.
3	Gonagudem ..	8	Do.
4	Rajanagaram...	20	do. Half of this is entered in the permanent accounts, and the other half is a subsequent grant. Of this 4 Acres have been occupied by the Travellers Bungalow and the Cutcherry of the late Tahsildar of Rajanagaram, and the remainder was incorporated with the Jerayati lands of Farzellipeta. One-fourth of the assessment has been fixed as quit-rent.

COCANADA, 17th August 1863.

(Signed) H. MORRIS Acting Collector.

1. Ordered that the plan be returned to the Acting Collector for revision with reference to the following remarks.
2. The total area of the covered superficial space available in the Choultry for the accommodation of all classes, appears by the appended Tabular Memorandum prepared in this Office, from the Acting Collector's plan, to be 1,456 square feet, of which 907 square feet, or nearly two-thirds, are allotted to Bramins; 102 square feet to Banians; 160 square feet to the Rajah caste; 125 square feet to "Rajpoots, Sudras, Mussalmans, &c.;" and 72 square feet to "Parias, &c."
3. This distribution seems still more partial, when it is considered that the main building consists, irrespective of verandahs, of only 12 regularly enclosed rooms and one hall, open on one side; of which eight rooms, aggregating a superficial space of 146 square feet, are assigned to Bramins; two rooms, equal to 24 square feet to Banians, and the remaining two rooms and hall, comprising 88 square feet, to travellers of the Rajah caste. The "Rajpoots, Sudras, Mussalmans, &c.," have allotted to them the outer verandah on the eastern side of the above-mentioned building, and are apparently detached "outer hall" on the same side with its inner and outer verandahs, the whole composing a superficial area of 215 square feet as already remarked, but no portion of it is completely enclosed or calculated to afford much privacy.
