From 12th October 1844 to 10th June 1863, or 18 years and 8 months.	3,771 14 10	The three allowances were held in abeyance in 1844, owing to a dispute between the registered Yeomiahdar Abdullamiah and another individual. The Government have now adjusted the dispute in favor of the registered party in their Proceedings dated the 11th June 1863, No. 1,022, communicated to the Collector by the Board under date the 17th idem. Abdullamiah and his brother Sheriff Saib have jointly applied to the Collector on the 14th July last for payment of the arrears, on the ground that they have been regularly keeping up the services from borrowed funds during the time the allowances were in abeyance, and from the inquiries made such appears to have been the case as reported to the Board in the concluding part of paragraph 12 of the Collector's letter of 16th September 1862, No. 394. It is therefore requested that the Board of Revenue will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government, for disbursing the arrears, viz., Rupees 3,771-14-10.

1	Do.	36 4 5	Do.	For the performance of the ceremony called "Ooroosoo" in the Vaikancarai Mosque.

Ordered to be submitted to Government, with reference to their Order quoted by the Collector, with the Board's recommendation that the arrears of Yeomiah stated to amount to Rupees 3,771-14-10 be sanctioned for payment to Abdullamiah subject to check by the Civil Paymaster.

No. 372. ORDER THEREON, 26th February 1864, No. 348.

The Board of Revenue recommend in these Proceedings the payment of the arrears of the Yeomiahs for 18 years and 8 months, though in paragraph 4 of their Proceedings dated 23rd March 1863, No. 1,729, they requested sanction for the continuance of the allowances from the date of their Proceedings. The Government cannot grant the sanction now required before an explanation is submitted as to the exact date from which the arrears should be paid.
