Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17th March 1864.

No. 199. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 9th March 1864,
No. 1,451:—

Read the following letter from the Acting Collector of Madras, dated Trivallur, 23rd February
1864, No. 85.

1. A Moniagar, in the Nagalapuram Division, named Nyneappah Reddi, had lately the misfortune to lose his house, sheds, and other property by fire, 105 head of cattle being destroyed by the flames. At present prices it will involve a considerable outlay to re-place these bullocks and other cattle, they are a necessary portion of his agricultural stock and must be procured. I have therefore the honor to recommend that some indulgence may be shown him with regard to the amount of the Government dues to be levied from him during the present Fusly.

2. In the Trivallur Talook proper, the Ryots often, owing I conjecture to internal dissensions indifference, and absenteeism, leave portions of their wet lands waste, and then urge claims for remissions. In the division however the inhabitants under less favorable circumstances, being peaceful and industrious, cultivate their entire holdings; owing to this commendable assiduity, Nyneappah Reddi has no items in his Puttah, for which I can grant remission, and thereby aid him to tide over his present losses. Under these circumstances, I trust the Board will authorize me to forego entirely the collection of 150 Rupees, being half Nyneappah Reddi's assessment due for the present year. This would, I beg to suggest, be a simpler and more satisfactory method, than granting him an advance to be collected hereafter.

Recommended for the sanction of Government.

At present prices, it will involve a considerable outlay to replace these bullocks and other cattle ; they are a necessary portion of his agricultural stock and must be procured. I have therefore the honor to recommend that some indulgence may be shown him, with regard to the amount of the Government dues to be levied from him, during the present Fasli.

2. In the Trivallur Taluk proper, the Ryots often, owing I conjecture to internal dissensions, in difference, and absenteeism, leave portions of their wet lands waste, and then urge claims for remissions. In the division however the inhabitants, under less favorable circumstances, being peaceful and industrious, cultivate their entire holdings ; owing to this commendable assiduity, Nyneappah Reddi has no item in his Puttah, for which I can grant remission, and thereby aid him to tide over his present losses.
