Ramnad is a large station and the head quarters of the Head Assistant and Salt Deputy Collectors as well as of the Assistant Superintendent of Police; Mr. Bywater, Supervisor of the Department Public Works, is also stationed there with his Office. When there was a Military Detachment stationed, a Dresser was attached to it, but withdrawn when the Detachment was re-called in 1860. Considering that Ramnad is the route by which thousands of pilgrims pass to and from the great Pagoda of Ramaswaram in the island of Pamben, and that they invariably bring with them diseases, the necessity for a Medical Officer is submitted for consideration, and it is requested that a Dresser may be sanctioned to be attached to the Office of the Head Assistant Collector.

NOTE.—The charge for the remaining portion of 1863-64 can be met from Rupees 1,500 provided for "Extra Temporary Establishment." The charge in 1864-65 has been estimated in a Supplemental Budget which is submitted.

Forwarded with reference to the Board's Proceedings of the 12th January 1864.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd March 1864.

1. Ordered that the above Tabular Statement be submitted to Government as required in Government Order No. 40, dated 9th January 1864.

2. The pay of the Dresser applied for in the Statement can be duly met as Government will perceive from the foot-note in the Statement.

No. 255. ORDER THEREON, 22nd March 1864, No. 490.
