Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,

No. 132. Read the following letter from Colonel T. McGOUN, Controller of Military Finance, to Colonel H. MARSHALL, Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Fort Saint George, 22nd March 1864, G:—

SIR,

• Revenue Department.

1863.	Personal Bond.	Collateral Bond.	Amount of Bond.	Amount of Stamp Duty.

8th September ...	..	1	8,750	8	Lieutenant Colonel A. Tod, Paymaster, Kaimpoor.

1. I have the honor with reference to the Order^s of Government of 16th January 1864, No. 102, to bring to notice that subsequent to the execution of the Bonds by Lieutenant-Colonel Silver on the 4th February 1863, upon which the Stamp Duty has been remitted, the Paymasters as per margin were called upon to execute Bonds and pay Stamp Duty as indicated.

2. The Bonds have been returned to them under the Order of the 5th December 1863, No. 3,868, but the Stamp Duty has not been refunded.

3. When these Officers executed the Bonds as required by the Regulation existing at the time the question of money security was under consideration, and it was determined by the Government of India that such should not be required.

4. It appears therefore that the Officers referred to, whose Bonds were executed subsequent to those of the Clothing Agent, should similarly receive a refund of Stamp Duty.

Referred to the Revenue Department.

23rd March 1864.
