Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 3rd May 1864.

No. 36. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th April 1864. Read the following letter from A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Bellary, 5th April 1864, No. 41:—

SIR,

1. Under the sanction conveyed in Government Proceedings No. 1,672 of the 10th September last, confirming the registry, in the name of Chinna Nayudu, of the lapsed share of the hereditary pension granted to the descendants of the Nadimidody Poligar, a supplemental Pension Abstract* was submitted to the Civil Paymaster, who returned
• Herewith sent to be returned. it audited, but retrenching the moiety of the pension due to Honnooruppa Nayudu, on the ground that Government have only sanctioned the continuance of the moiety of the allowance enjoyed by the deceased, in the name of Chinna Nayudu, and that their special sanction must be obtained for the payment to Honnooruppa Nayudu of the other moiety. I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether the sanction above referred to may not be understood to imply that Honnooruppa Nayudu is entitled to the moiety, which as stated in column 12 of the Statement which accompanied the Board's Proceedings No. 5,785 of the 14th September last, he is said to have enjoyed.

2. As from this uncertainty the pension share of Honnooruppa Nayudu remains undrawn, early sanction is solicited for the disbursement of his share falling due from the 3rd October 1859.

Submitted for the orders of Government. The Board were certainly under the impression that there was nothing in the Government Order to show that Government intended to put a stop to the payment of one-half of the allowance to Honnooruppa Nayudu, who it was reported was in the enjoyment of this share. The Civil Paymaster, however, seems to have given a different interpretation to the Order.

No. 37. ORDER THEREON, 3rd May 1864, No. 768.

The Civil Paymaster was correct in requiring specific sanction for the payment to Honnooruppa Nayudu of a moiety of the pension of Rupees 19-7-1 per mensem or Rupees 233-5-0 per annum, the continuance of which to Kasavapah Nayudu in one sum was sanctioned in the Order of Government, dated 21st July 1835, No. 847, as the absolute division of the allowance appears never to have received the authority of Government. Sanction is now granted for the payment to Honnooruppa Nayudu of the annual allowance of Rupees (116-10-6) one hundred and sixteen, Annas ten and Pice six from the date of last payment.
