No. 149. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 27th April 1864.
Read the following letter from C. W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to W.
HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Cuddalore,
20th April 1864, No. 55 :—

SIR,

1. Referring to the final paragraph of my letter to the Board of the 18th instant, I have the honor to forward all particulars of the Jain Temples in this District, and which it is proposed to place under the management of one General Committee of the Jain sect, consisting of five individuals, who have been selected by the community as eligible and competent to discharge the duty appertaining to the trust.

2. Besides the villages enumerated in the enclosed Statement whereat Jain Temples exist, there are many other villages scattered about the District containing inhabitants of this sect; but they possess no separate Pagoda, and in consequence the Jains are in the habit of frequenting their places of worship elsewhere located as noted under the column of remarks in the Statement.

3. The persons named for the Committee have been selected by the Jains themselves, under the guidance of the heads and principal men of the sect, and no objection whatever has been raised by any one to the proposed members.

4. I solicit the authority of Government for the appointment of the proposed Committee for all purposes contemplated by the Act.

1. Ordered to be submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. The Collector's proposals for the Committees for Hindu Temples, will be submitted on receipt of the further information called for by the Board.
