Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 16th May 1864.

No. 165. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th May 1864, No. 2,751.

Read the following letter from the Agent to the Governor at Vizagapatam, dated 13th April 1864, No. 186:—

A European gentleman in the employ of the Maharajah of Vizianagrum, superintending a Coffee plantation in the Galiconda Hills in this District, has offered to try, in those tracts, the cultivation of the Chinchona, if the plants are supplied by Government. I have, therefore, the honor to request you will, if practicable, obtain a "Wardian case" of the same for transmission to that gentleman. The result of the experiment will be duly reported.

Submitted to Government, with the request that Mr. McIvor may be instructed to forward a case of plants to the Collector.

No. 166. ORDER THEREON, 16th May 1864, No. 833.

Mr. McIvor is authorized to supply the case of Chinchona plants applied for in these Proceedings on payment.
