SIR,

I have the honor with reference to paragraph 19 of the Proceedings of Government, dated 6th April 1864, No. 586, communicated by the Board on the 9th idem, to request that they will be so good as to inform me, how I am to construe the concluding words in that paragraph, "they acquiesce in the proposed arrangement prospectively." Is it that the arrangement in question should be carried out in the case of allowances which may hereafter become due to the parties named in the margin of the paragraph, or is it that it should take effect only after their death.
