PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Under date the May 1865.

Read the following letter from the Sub Collector in charge Godavery District.

Forwarding Claim of M. Le Faucheur's house at Cocanada.

(Here enter 28th April 1865 No. 10)

The question of the purchase of M. Le Faucheur's property will be referred for consideration in the D. P. W. as to the provision of funds for the purpose.

The purchase seems desirable, if funds can be provided, and it appears probable that a considerable sum might be recovered by the re-sale of the greater portion

I hereby thank that the damage done to Mr de Faucheurs property which he is claiming remuneration

not to much remuneration should be made

portion of the compound and of so much of the building
as may not need to be removed in carrying out the improvements directed by Sir C. Trevelyan when Govr.

The question however
as to the probable amount of the recovery which was referred to the Superintending Engineer for report thro'
the D. P. W. in G. O. dated 8th October 1864, No. 1846 R. D.
has not yet been answered.
