This being a religious grant, the purpose of which is duly fulfilled, special sanction for its continuance is not necessary under the Secretary of State's orders, communicated to Collectors in Board's Circular Order, No. XII., dated 4th February 1864. The Board approve the recognition of the widow as heir to the deceased, and will apply to Government for sanction to pay to her the accumulated arrears amounting to Rupees 460-3-5.

2. The Collector will report to whose neglect is due the excessive delay of more than six years in reporting this lapse, and what notice has been taken of the misconduct.

Miscellaneous.

1. Payment of the accumulated arrears, amounting to Rupees 460-3-5, is sanctioned.

2. The delay in reporting the lapse of the Yeomiah alluded to in paragraph 2 of the Board's Proceedings, is very discreditable.
