With reference to the Board's Proceedings, dated 3rd October 1864, No. 6,497, the late Acting Collector in his letter, dated 22nd October 1864, No. 275, recommended the continuance of pension to the widow of Strenvasa Charry until her demise on the ground that she is in indigent circumstances. The heirs of the deceased Sama Charry being in good circumstances, no recommendation was made on their behalf for the continuance of pension.

Forwarded with reference to their Proceedings, dated 11th November 1864, No. 7,348.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 2nd June 1865.

1. Resolved that the foregoing papers be submitted for the orders of Government.
2. The papers relate to two shares of 16½ Rupees each, which have lapsed out of seven shares into which an original annual allowance of Rupees 115½ (in lieu of a Shrotriem village) was divided, and paid by deductions from the Kistbundy Beriz.

3. In their Order No. 477, dated 24th April 1854, the Government authorized the continuance of these shares from the Treasury, and directed that each share should be reported upon on the death of its recipient; but in the case of the two shares now reported on, and the recipients of which died on the 11th April 1859 and 16th November 1859 respectively, the local authorities failed to make any report at the time, probably as suggested by Mr. Banbury, under the impression that the pensions ceased on the death of the Pensioners.

4. Sama Charry, the last incumbent of one of the lapsed shares, was the grandson of the original grantee, and enjoyed the entire share of 16½ Rupees per annum. He appears to have left two nephews, the sons of his undivided brother. The arrears of pension due to Sama Charry were forfeited, owing to his failure to appear for muster whilst alive, and the local authorities do not recommend that his share should be continued to his heirs, as they are in good circumstances.

5. Streenevassa Charry, the last incumbent of the other lapsed share, was also the grandson of the original grantee, and enjoyed the whole share of 16½ Rupees. He has left a widow, Cavery Boye, and an adopted son who holds half a share in a tract of cultivable land assessed at Rupees 63, which is reported to be insufficient for their maintenance.

6. Under the foregoing circumstances, the Board support the Collector's recommendation that Streenevassa Charry's share, amounting to Rupees 16½ per annum, should be continued to his widow, Cavery Boye, until her demise, and the arrears due from the 17th November 1859, the day following that of her husband's decease, up to the 30th April 1865, amounting to Rupees 90-0-3 should be paid to her.

No. 35.

ORDER THEREON, 2nd June 1865, No. 1,181.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Governor in Council sanctions the continuance of the allowance of Rupees 16½ per annum, and the payment of arrears, amounting to Rupees 90-0-3, to Cavery Boye, as recommended by the Board.

2. The age of the widow, Cavery Boye, is not given in the statement. This information should be invariably recorded in cases of pensions granted or continued to widows. The Board will issue orders accordingly.

These two pensioners died on the 11th April and 16th November 1859 respectively, but the casualties were not reported at the time probably under the impression that the pensions ceased on the death of the pensioners, and the arrears of pension due to one of them, named Sama Charry, had been forfeited owing to his failure to appear for muster when alive. Government have, however, when sanctioning these pensions, directed in Extract from Minutes of Consultation dated 24th April 1854, communicated with the Board's Proceedings, dated 8th May 1854, that a report should be made on the occurrence of a lapse, and this is accordingly done.

16 8 0 each share.

2. In authorizing the continuance of the above payments from the Treasury, the Government, in their Order, No. 477, dated 24th April 1854, directed that each share should be reported on on the death of its recipient, but the local authorities failed to do so.

3. Before, however, submitting these cases for the orders of Government, the Board desire to be informed whether the heirs of the deceased incumbents are in indigent circumstances or otherwise, and also as to the exact amount of arrears that will be payable should Government deal favorably with the cases. The Collector, the Board observe, has made no recommendation of any kind in his Statement.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 11th November 1864.

Read the following letter from G. BANBURY, Esq., Acting Collector of North Arcot, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 22nd October 1864, No. 275:—

1. With reference to the 3rd paragraph of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd October 1864, No. 6,497, I have the honor to state, for the information of the Board, that the nephews of the deceased Sama Chari No. 6, appear to be in good circumstances, as they hold Shrotriem villages in Madras District as mentioned in column 7 of my tabular statement referred to in the Proceedings. The heirs of the late Streenevassa Charlu, according to the Tahsildar's report, hold half a share in a tract of cultivable land assessed at Rupees 63 and odd, which I consider is not sufficient for their maintenance. Under the impression that the pensions lapsed to Government on the death of the last incumbent, I made no recommendation on their behalf. I now beg to recommend the continuance of pension to the widow of Streenevassa Chary until her demise.

We ought I think in cases of this kind when allowances are continued to a widow, & especially a brahm widow, to have her age given. It is useful as a check in after years - but I don't find the age of the lady in question any where stated
