Sir,

I have the honor by direction of the Chief Commissioner to acknowledge the receipt of your telegraph message of the 20th instant, and to state that Lieutenant J. S. D. Bennett, Cantonment Magistrate of Rangoon, has been communicated with, and that he will be relieved of his duties in time to leave direct for Madras, by the next steamer which will leave this about the middle of next.

next month. The Officer who will be recommended to succeed Lieutenant Pennet is Lieutenant Storer, who is at present officiating as Magistrate of Akyab. Should he not be here in time to relieve Lieutenant Pennet temporary arrangements will be made so that no detention shall occur to Lieutenant Pennet.

I am, Sir,
Yours faithfully,
J. H. Nelson Davies
