Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
28th June 1865.

No. 589. Read the following letter from Captain J. G. RYVES, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 1st Division, to Colonel C. A. ORR, R. E., Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Waltair, 14th June 1865, No. 283:—.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to enclose an estimate, amounting to Rupees 311-3-6, for sinking a well and making certain other improvements to the Principal Assistant's Cutcherry now under construction at Nursipatam in the District of Vizagapatam. Enclosure 1.

2. The estimate has been prepared by the Principal Assistant Collector, by whom the several small works have been proposed, and the rates have been checked in this Office, and altered where necessary.

3. As the Collector, by whom the estimate was countersigned in signification of his approval of the proposed works, has requested me to obtain the necessary sanction of Government to the additional works, I do myself the honor of requesting that the amount, viz., Rupees 311, may be placed at my disposal from the current year's Reserve in the event of the enclosed estimate being sanctioned for immediate execution.

Referred to the Revenue Department.
