No. 643. Read the following letter from J. D. ROBINSON, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort Saint George, dated Palmanair, 19th June 1865, No. 31 :—

SIR,

1. In enclosing copy of a communication with accompaniment, received from the Mahant and Trustee of the Tripatti Temples, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to obtain the sanction of Government to the interest payable on the six Promissory Notes therein particularized being exempted from Income Tax, under the provisions of Section 133 of Act XXXII. of 1860.

2. The matter was referred for local enquiry to the late Deputy Collector Subbroyalu Nayadu, who has reported that he had satisfied himself that the Notes in question are the property of the Terumalá and Tripatti Pagodas, and as such entitled to the exemption solicited.

From STRI MAHANT DARMA DOSS JEE, Trustee of the Terumalá and Tripatti Pagodas, to J. D. ROBINSON, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, dated — April 1865.

SIR,

Having applied through my Agent, to the Accountant General, for the interest of the six of Government Bonds* purchased by my predecessor Stri Mahant Seva Doss Jee for the exclusive benefit of the Terumalá and Tripatti Temples, that Officer has directed me to produce a Certificate from you declaring that the Bonds are included in the assets of said charitable Institutions, in view that the interest may be exempted from the operation of the Income Tax Act. I therefore request that you will be pleased to grant me a Certificate.
