No. 377. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th July 1865, No. 3,943.

Read the following Tabular Report from H. G. SMITH, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to R. A. DALYELL, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Muddenpully, 23rd May 1865, on a lapsed Poligar Pension in the District of Cuddapah :—

Number.	Talook and Village, extent and value of the entire Inám.	When and by whom granted, name of the original grantee, Sunnuds or other documents in support of the grant.	Nature of the grant, charity or service; if service, nature of the duty prescribed by the grant.	Name of the last holder, date of his decease, and the relationship in which he stood to the grantee.	Share enjoyed by the deceased and that held by other members.	Family left by the deceased, and name and age of the parties, their circumstances, and the means of subsistence possessed by the family.	Remarks.
1	Jungamrazupally in Budwail Talook, an annual allowance of Rupees 351-4-3, entered in No. 26 of Mr. Ross's Register, Statement X.	Granted by Colonel Munro, under date the 12th July 1801, to the original grantee, Butchee Naidu, and lastly renewed under sanction of Government, dated 29th November 1836. No Sunnuds, &c., are forthcoming.	Compensation in lieu of resumed lands, offices, and privileges.	Accamma, the last holder, who was in the enjoyment of a share of Rupees 58-9-0 per annum out of the amount of Rupees 234-2-10 last sanctioned by Government, died on the 28th June 1864. She was grand daughter of the original grantee.	The amount of share of Rupees 58-9-0 per annum, or Rupees 4-14-1 per mensem, was enjoyed by the deceased Accamma.	1 Easwaramma, elder daughter of the deceased, aged eighteen years. 1 Guruvappa Naidu, husband of do., aged forty years. 1 Guruvappa Naidu, son of do., aged two years. 1 Guruvamma, daughter of do., aged four years. 1 Vengayah, husband of the deceased Accamma, aged fifty-five years. 1 Govindamma, 2nd daughter of the deceased, aged sixteen years, who is married and lives with her husband. 1 Seshamma, 3rd daughter of the deceased, aged eight years, unmarried. 7 They are all reported very poor, having no other means of subsistence.	An annual pension of Rupees 351-4-3 was granted to the original grantee, Butchee Naidu, on whose death it was continued to his son Venkatapati Naidu. On the death of this latter, the Government were pleased to sanction the continuance of Rs. 263-7-2, to his family, under date the 25th January 1836. Gangamma, the 1st wife of the said Venkatapati Naidu, having died a report was made to the Board by the then Acting Principal Collector, under date the 18th October 1836, recommending that the pension should be reduced to Rupees 234-2-10, and continued to the members of the same family, and the Government, under date the 29th November 1836, sanctioned it accordingly. Accamma, (daughter of the said Gangamma,) who was in the receipt of a share of Rupees 85-9-0 per annum from the amount of Rupees 234-2-10, died on the 28th June 1864, leaving no male issue but three daughters, the eldest of whom, named Easwaramma, claims the allowance which was enjoyed by her mother. As the family of the deceased incumbent have no other means of subsistence than the allowance enjoyed by the deceased, I beg to recommend that the same, amounting to Rupees 58-9-0 per annum, be continued to Easwaramma, daughter of the deceased, from 29th June 1864. The delay in reporting this case is caused by the necessity of obtaining the requisite information on several points to complete this report.

* Original grantee.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 21st July 1865.

1. Submitted for the orders of Government.

2. This is a share in a Poligar pension, and, as recommended by the Collector, the Board would propose that the pension of Rupees 58-9-0 be continued in the name of Easwaramma, elder daughter of the deceased, for the maintenance of herself and her two sisters.

3. The previous history of this case appears to be so plain that the Collector should not have allowed more than three months to elapse in reporting the case for the Board's Orders. The last holder died on the 28th June 1864, and the Collector's Report is dated 23rd May 1865.

No. 378. ORDER THEREON, 21st July 1865, No. 1,688.

Miscellaneous.

1. The continuance of this share in a Poligar pension, is sanctioned as proposed.

2. These allowances, granted in lieu of resumed lands and privileges, are hereditary in the line of direct descent during good behaviour, as has been formerly declared.

3. The Board can sanction continuance, and report their proceedings for confirmation.
