Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd July 1865.

No. 397. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. TEMPLE, Superintendent of Stamps, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 19th July 1865, No. 65 :—

SIR,

I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Deputy Collector, North Arcot, regarding the establishment of a new depôt for the sale of Postage Stamps, and to request that the accompanying list may be published in the Gazette.

Additional list of Local Depôts established for the sale of Postage Stamps of the value not less than 5 Rupees at a time.

District.	Stations at which new local depôts are established.
North Arcot	Tirtany.

(Signed) J. TEMPLE, Lieut.-Colonel,
Superintendent of Stamps.

From M. VENKATA RUTNAM, Deputy Collector, North Arcot, to Lieutenant-Colonel J. TEMPLE, Superintendent of Stamps, Madras, dated Chittoor, 30th June 1865, No. 117.

SIR,

1. The Sub-Magistrate of Tirtany reports that there is a great demand for Postage Stamps of every description owing to the recent establishment of Regular and District Post Offices at Arconum, which is the junction of the North-Western Railway, and represents that the Deputy Post Master and other Railway Officials often complained to him that they are subject to great inconvenience and risk for want of postage Stamps. This place has also become of great importance in consequence of the construction, newly, of Tramway up to Conjeveram where people of all classes and pilgrims continually resort to.

2. As there are no local depôts contiguous to Tirtany where the Postal Officials and others can effect the purchase and sale of Postage Stamps except at Chendragherry and Arcot, which are each situated at a distance of 30 miles and upwards, I have the honor to request that under these circumstances you will be so good as to accord sanction for the establishment of a local depôt at Tirtany which is very near to Arconum.

3. I beg to mention, however, that under the sanction conveyed in a letter from your office, dated 4th August 1855, the several local depôts in this District were established.

(True Copy.)
(Signed) J. TEMPLE, Lieut.-Colonel,
Superintendent of Stamps.
