Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 26th July 1865.

No. 489. Dated 26th July 1865, No. 1,744.

Miscellaneous.

1. On 22nd March 1865, in Proceedings, No. 635, Revenue Department, the Government directed that Deputy Collector B. Shama Row, who entered the service on 1st December 1822, or nearly 43 years ago, should be directed to submit his application for the pension to which his service entitles him.

2. Shama Row applied for permission to remain the further period of two years and twelve days in order to enable him to complete five years' service on his present rate of pay, and thus to obtain a pension of the amount of one-half of that pay.

3. The Government saw no reason to comply with this request, or to modify their opinion that Shama Row's age and protracted service must have disabled him for that energetic performance of public duty which they have a right to expect from officers in the grade to which he belongs, and they directed in G. O. dated 27th June last, that he should be required to conform without further delay to their former orders.

4. Nearly a month has now elapsed since this last order was issued, and not only has no application for pension reached Government, but it has been ascertained from the Collector that up to the 20th instant Shama Row had not sent in the application to him.

5. The Government cannot allow their orders to be thus practically ignored by their servants, and accordingly resolve that Shama Row be informed, through the Collector, that his pay will cease from 31st instant, and that his appointment will be dealt with as a vacancy from that date.

6. They consider that Mr. Hathaway was wanting in the performance of his duty, in not himself calling upon Shama Row to obey the orders of Government, or reporting that he had not obeyed them.
