No. 39. Read again letter from the Director of Public Instruction, dated 23rd December 1864, and recorded in Government Order, 12th January 1865, No. 47.

Read also the following letter from E. B. POWELL, Esq., Director of Public Instruction, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 18th January 1865, No. 85.

SIR,

Adverting to an Order of Government in the Revenue Department, dated the 12th instant, No. 47, requesting specification of the nature of each of the endowments named in the margin, I have the honor to submit the following information on the subject.

* Morehead Law Scholarship,
Do. Vernacular prize.
Maharajah of Travancore's prize.

2. The fund connected with the "Morehead Law Scholarship" consists of 5 per cent. Government paper to the amount of Rupees 5,000, representing a subscription raised by the friends of the late Mr. Morehead on his departure from India. At a meeting of the subscribers, it was determined to found with the endowment a Scholarship in connection with the Law class of the Presidency College. A stipend of Rupees 20 per mensem from the interest is paid to the scholar, and the balance of interest is expended in the purchase of prize books for presentation to the scholar.

3. The Morehead "Vernacular Prize" is purchased from the accumulated interest of an endowment of Rupees 1,050, which was founded by the late Honorable V. Sadagopah Charlu at the Presidency College in honor of the late Mr. Morehead. The prize is given either annually or every alternate year at the discretion of the Director of Public Instruction. The endowment has been invested in Government paper of the 5 per cent loan.

4. The fund connected with the "Maharajah of Travancore's prize" consists of a sum of Rupees 500 placed at the disposal of the Director of Public Instruction by the Maharajah. It has been invested in Government paper of the 4 per cent, loan, and it has been determined to purchase an annual prize from the proceeds of interest, for award to a student in the Presidency College distinguishing himself in subjects to be determined on hereafter.

5. In furnishing the above information I have to remark that the interest accruing on the three funds is not to be diverted to any other purposes than those specified above.

No. 40. ORDER THEREON, 2nd February 1865, No. 196.

Miscellaneous.

1. The Governor in Council is pleased to exempt from Income Tax the interest accruing on the Promissory Notes in question, so long as it is devoted to the purposes specified in the second of the foregoing letters.

2. The Government further authorize the refund of the Income Tax already levied on those Notes.

3. The Director of Public Instruction will report the numbers and dates of the Notes for insertion in the statement of exemptions submitted to the Government of India.
