SIR,

1. The extent of land noted in the margin, situated in the villages of Tulamarapuram, Bollavaram, and Malapad, in the Proddatur Talook, was in the enjoyment of one Boyenapalli Sinammah as a charitable Inám.

2. This woman died in 1857, and there being a doubt as to who was her heir, the Inám was taken by the Collector, Mr. Murray, under management, and was managed for four Fuslies, (from Fusly 1267, A. D. 1857-58, to 1270, A. D. 1860-61,) when the question of an heir was inquired into, and settled by the Inám Commissioner.

3. One Venkata Rungiah was declared Inámdar, and a Title Deed accordingly given him. In July 1861, he claimed the proceeds of the Inám which had accrued while it was under management, and made application for the money, through the First Class Deputy Collector Royappah Puntulu. The latter wrote to the Tahsildar to ascertain what the amount was, and for information as to whether it had been properly stated by the Petitioner. The Tahsildar has only now answered these questions, though he has been repeatedly called upon by the Deputy Collector to reply to them. A reprimand has been sent him.
