SIR,

I have the honor to report that an old ruined building, in the village of Nattam, situated in a jungle known as the Nattam Palace, having been the residence of the former Nattam Poligar, was in a state of ruin, and the materials of wood and stone were being plundered. I therefore ordered their sale by auction. The materials fetched Rupees 250, which are now in deposit. I beg the orders of the Board, whether I am to carry the amount to the credit of Government, or the Local Fund.

Submitted for the orders of Government.
