SIR,

Miscellaneous.

1. I am directed to communicate to the Chamber the annexed copy of a Telegram from the Acting Collector of Ganjam, shewing the distressed position of that District from scarcity of grain.

2. The Government request you will circulate this paper to the Members of the Chamber.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed) W. HUDLESTON,

Acting Secretary to Government.

TELEGRAM.

From Berhampore Collector,

To Madras Government, Revenue Secretary.

"2nd.—Your telegram. See my letter to Board date 25th. The cessation of sales still continues, and much distress throughout the country. The same in Cuttack, whence usually large supplies come. Rice sells in Berhampore at seven Madras Seers the Rupee. There is probably one month's supply on hand. Harvest will be very bad. If a supply of two thousand bags were sent to Gopaulpore, ready sale would be found and much relief experienced. Have telegraphed to Calcutta."
