ENCLOSURES Nos. 1 to 20.—Suits

Resolved that the foregoing papers be submitted to Government, with the Board's recommendation that under the circumstances of the case, authority be granted for the issue free of charge to the Plaintiffs in the seventeen suits referred to of fresh stamp papers in lieu of the twenty stamps valued at Rupees (63) sixty-three, which, through no fault of their own, have become unserviceable.

No. 202. ORDER THEREON, 14th November 1865, No. 2,770.

Separate Revenue, No. 8.
Stamps.

The Government observe that by G. O. dated 20th September 1865, No. 1,346, Judicial Department, the operation of the Cantonment

Courts of Small Causes was suspended pending the passing of the requisite Act, and the operation of the Native Courts of Requests therefore revived. Under these circumstances the issue of fresh Stamp papers appears unnecessary.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 10th August 1865.

Read the following letter from A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to R. A. DALYELL, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Camp Vunganoor, 31st July 1865, No. 139 :—

1. I have the honor, with reference to the enclosed copy of letter, No. 73 of the 26th instant, from the Major General Commanding C. D., to request the instructions of the Board of Revenue, as to whether, under the circumstances therein stated, fresh stamps may, at the cost of Government, be furnished to the parties who filed the seventeen suits alluded to in the said letter, during the month of May last, before the Brigade Major of the Bellary Cantonment.

2. The present case does not appear to fall under the provision of Section 50 of Act X. of 1832; and Act IV. of 1865 (Madras) is silent as to whether such suits as were filed in the Native Courts of Requests, previous to 1st June last, (the date on which the Act came into force,) can be recognized by the Judge of the Court of Small Causes at the Cantonment.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From Major General J. McLEOD, Commanding Bellary, to A. HATHAWAY, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated 26th July 1865, No. 73.

The accompanying suits (seventeen) were filed in the Office of the Brigade Major, for trial by Court of Requests during the month of May; on the 26th idem, Government Notification was promulgated, instituting a Court of Small Causes at this Station, with effect from the 1st June, thereby abolishing Native Courts of Requests from that date; the applications being on stamped paper, they were, to avoid loss to the applicants, forwarded to the Cantonment Magistrate with a view to the suits being tried in the Small Cause Court; the Cantonment Magistrate has, however, intimated his inability to entertain the suits as now drawn out on account of informality in their preparation, and the consequence is, that the stamp papers, through no fault of the applicants, is a dead loss to them. I request, therefore, I may be informed whether, under these exceptional circumstances, the papers may be returned into the Deputy Collector's Office, and others of the same value issued to the individuals concerned, with a view to their filing their suits in the Small Cause Court.

(True Copy.)

(Signed) A. HATHAWAY,
Collector.

The Collector will be requested to report the amount of the Stamp duty involved.
