No. 552. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 22nd November 1865, No. 7,491.

Read the following letter from the Collector of North Arcot, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chittoor, 24th October 1865, No. 210:—

Adverting to the Order of Government, dated 6th October 1865, No. 2,421, sanctioning the nomination of Janardaná Naidu to be Tahsildar of Polur, on condition of his passing the Modified Special Test at the first opportunity, I have the honor to submit copy of a letter, dated 20th October 1865, No. 571, from the Sub-Collector, forwarding with his recommendation an Arzi from Janardaná Naidu, in which he prays that he may be excused going up for the Modified Special Test until March next. As the request appears reasonable, under the circumstances stated in Mr. Barlow's letter, I beg to recommend that it be complied with.

From the Sub-Collector of North Arcot, to the Collector of North Arcot, dated Vellore, 20th October 1865.

1. I have the honor to forward an Arzi sent to your address by the Acting Tahsildar of Polur; he has written to me separately on the same subject, viz., that he may be permitted to go up for the Modified Special Test in March next, instead of Tuesday the 24th instant.

2. I think his application should be complied with. This summons must have taken him completely by surprise. The order telling him that Government have sanctioned his appointment has as yet not reached him. Further, however, simple an examination is, a man who wishes to ensure success, and do himself justice, would require some short special preparation, (I now speak from my own experience of examinations,) a few weeks at all events. The said Acting Tahsildar can hardly be said to have had a few days' notice.

Under the circumstances reported, the Government will be requested to permit Janardaná Naik to act as Tahsildar of Polur, until the result of the next Modified Test Examination be known, on the understanding that should he then fail to pass he will be required to revert to his former post of Sub-Magistrate.
