No. 32. Read the following letter from C. W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot; to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Gingee, 27th January 1865, No. 8.

The accompanying is an abstract Statement furnished to me by the Relief Committee at Cuddalore, of disbursements made by them to meet the distress caused by the inundation in Cuddalore in October last, as required by the orders of Government, under date the 2nd November 1864, No. 1248.

2. The unfortunate calamity at Masulipatam happening about the same time, considerably restricted our intended operations, as that event so completely absorbed public sympathy that, beyond local means, I at once abandoned all thought of extending an appeal elsewhere, and accordingly the relief distributed was apportioned with the greatest care and economy, and only to the most necessitous to whom it was really an object.

3. The demands for aid far exceeded the money available; but I think that all has been done that was absolutely required as an auxiliary to individual efforts and exertion, for nothing more than this was attempted, nor was any thing more practicable with our limited resources.

4. Matters are now so far righted that huts have everywhere been re-built, and all serious damage by the flood has been repaired, and there only remains for consideration and final disposal, at the approaching settlement, the cases of those ryots and land-holders whose fields have been either wholly or in part rendered unfit for cultivation in the present season.

5. The remissions that will be necessitated by the effects of the late flood will be considerable, 50,000 Rupees have been roughly estimated; but what the amount will eventually be can of course only be known so soon as the Jummahbundy is closed; meanwhile, each individual case will receive careful consideration, and the majority of such cases will, in all probability, come before myself for disposal.

6. I request the authority of Government for the final adjustment of the advance of Rupees 1000, without which, it will be seen, that the measure of assistance afforded would have been very limited and far below actual requirements; and I am satisfied that under the circumstances now stated the Government will at once be pleased to confirm this timely donation from the Public Treasury.
