1. Finding great difficulty in procuring a fit person for the District Post Office at Gudalur,

I lately proposed to the Post Master General

2. I am addressing the Post Master General again on the subject. At the same time the want of an efficient person to conduct the duties of the Post Office at Gudalur is becoming every day more pressing.

His successor, a young Brahmin, was some time ago convicted of a criminal charge and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment.

4. Under these circumstances I have, as a temporary measure, directed the immediate entertainment of an efficient person on 35 Rupees per month, pending the receipt of sanction to my proposition above adverted to, and solicit the authority of Government for the disbursement of the salary from 1st proximo.

Adverting to my letter of the 31st ultimo, No. 14, soliciting authority for the disbursement of a salary of 35 Rupees per month to a fit person for the District Post Office at Gudalur, I have the honor to state that the charge can be met out of the savings of the Budget for 1864-65 under the head "B.
