Complains that a sum of Rs 6, which is a part of his late father's pension amounting to Rs 13, has been continued only in the name of his illegitimate sister with reference to Govt Proceedings No

Enclosure No 1350 of 65

On reference made by Mr. Levinge to the Board regarding the right of the Petitioner to the pension, Board has recommended that a pension of Rupees 6 shall be paid monthly to the Petitioner's sister Pirvatha Thanthay Nachyar till her lifetime and that the pension of the Petitioner's father is included in the pension recommended by the Board to be given till her lifetime.
Accordingly the Government has passed Proceedings No.
2154 on the 30th November 1863.

no necessity for him to interfere in this matter

2nd That he petitioned the Government against the endorsement of the collector saying that according to Hindu Law that be the son, should be entitled to the pension and not the daughter, for which he received in answer that as they (the Govt) had already passed their proceedings they could not interfere in the matter

3rd That according to the Hindu Law a son and not a daughter inherits the father's estate and is an heir to his property.

4th That Parvatha, near thani Nachiar is not his own sister but the daughter of his father's concubine - that she is now a widow inheriting her husband's property.

5th That according to the pension list kept by Government his (Petitioner's) mother belongs to the family line of the Mottaramalinga Athapatty the

the late Zemindar ^{the} said mother of the Parvatha near thani Nachiar - that when the late Zemindar Muttu Ramalinga Sadoobady died, Government passed a written statement that his (Petitioner's) father also had a right to petition in 1803 of 1804 for a portion of his estates

7th That for all the above reasons his (Petitioner's) sister has no right to his father's pension -

8th That when Muttu Ramalinga Sadoobady was taken to Madras by the Govt in 1803 the Zemindary was given over to his sister Manglasperi Nachiar - that Govt not wishing to place the late Zemindar's family under the supervision of his sister passed their Min of consultation to the effect that his family should be supported from the income derived from salt -

9th All that Petitioner has now to beg is that this his appeal should be taken into consideration, and that instead of instead of Petitioner's sister, receiving the father's pension which is unjust, he the rightful heir should be allowed to draw the full pension.

Petitioner begs for an order to that effect.

The following facts are herewith submitted for your Honors perusal.
