Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 10th March 1865.

No. 152. Read the following letter from C. G. MASTER, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Examiners, to A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 21st February 1865, No. 125 :—

SIR,

1. I am directed by the Board of Examiners to request the interference of Government under the following circumstances.

• G. O. dated 4th February 1865, No. 146.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council having recently* authorized the disbursement to Messrs. Bliss, Galton, and McCarthy of Rupees 1,600 each, for successfully passing the test prescribed for the Major Reward, a bill was made out and forwarded in due course to the Civil Paymaster for audit.

3. For the last three years it has been usual in such cases, with reference to the Financial Notification of the Government of India, dated 31st March 1862, No. 2,541, to make no deduction on account of Income Tax. On this occasion, however, the Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster passed the bill subject to a deduction of Rupees 144, and on a reference being made to him as to his reasons for thus treating a payment which, being given for a specific object, was, under the Governor General's Order above adverted to, exempt from Income Tax, he replied as follows : "The rewards were taxed agreeably to the views held by Mr. Lodwick, under whose instructions the remuneration given to Mr. King, in Proceedings of Government, Educational Department, 22nd November 1864, No. 354, and the donation to Mr. Curran, sanctioned in Proceedings of Government, Revenue Department, 4th January 1865, No. 3, were both taxed, and since Mr. Lodwick's departure this office has acted in accordance therewith, and has taxed the reward to Mr. Morgan of the Normal School, and those included in the present bill."

4. As no reference is made by the Chief Assistant Civil Paymaster in charge to any Resolution of the Government of India upon which "the views held by Mr. Lodwick," might possibly be based, I am instructed to request that the Civil Paymaster may be directed to revert to the

His Excellency in Council accordingly resolves that all rewards given as a specific payment for a specific object, as payments for the destruction of wild beasts, or penalties paid to informers, shall be exempted from deduction of Income Tax by the officers paying them, care being taken to distinguish cases where such rewards or allowances are not merely isolated payments, but form part of the regular salary of an office or profits of a profession practice hitherto in force, and in accordance with the instructions contained in the Financial Notification already adverted to, extract from which is quoted marginally, to pass the sum recently deducted from the bill for the Major Rewards of Messrs. Bliss, Galton, and McCarthy.

Transferred to the Revenue Department.

I am instructed to request that the Lord Paymaster may be directed to revert to the practice hitherto in force and in accordance with the instructions contained in the Financial Notification already adverted to,

This Committee in Council accordingly resolved that all rewards given for a specific payment for a specific object, as payments for the destruction of wild beasts, or penalties paid to informers, shall be exempted from deduction of Income Tax by the Officers paying them, care being taken to distinguish cases where such rewards or allowances are not merely isolated payments but form part of the regular salary of an Office or profits of a profession.
