Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 22nd March 1865.

No. 385. Read the following Telegram from MAHOMED KASIM SAHIB, Abkarry Renter, Rajahmundry, to the Honorable the Governor in Council, Fort Saint George, dated 21st March 1865.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That your Petitioner rented the Abkarry Farm of the Talook of Rajahmundry from Fusly 1273, commencing 30th July 1863, to Fusly 1277, 30th June 1868, for Rupees 125 thousand, two hundred and fifty, and a Cowl was given him by the Collector of this District on 1st June 1863, on behalf of Her Majesty; nothing in the Cowl allows to break or alter it during the term of the rent. One year eight months have expired out of the term, and three years four months more to elapse. Your Petitioner performed his part punctually during the expired portion of the term of the rent. The provisions of the Act III. of 1864 are quite contrary to the conditions laid down in the Cowl, and a loss will be sustained by your Petitioner if it (the Cowl) be carried out under the provision of that Act.

That the Collector of this District refers your Petitioner to appeal to your Excellency, but the Head Assistant Magistrate and Town Inspector have stopped the operation of Cowl suddenly on 13th instant, while in the other 12 Talooks of this Zillah the former Cows are carried out. The stoppage of sale of liquor, &c., is calculated to cause great loss of Rupees, hundred daily is irrecoverable. Your Petitioner humbly solicits your Excellency to issue speedy orders either to carry out the Cowl in its term, compensating your petitioner for the stoppage of the sale, or to cancel the Cowl, compensating him for the expected profit of Rupees six thousand six hundred and sixty-six, Annas ten, Pice 8 from 13th March 1865, to 30th June 1868, and returning the deposit advances of Rupees four thousand one hundred seventy-five, for which act of justice as in duty bound shall ever pray.

No. 386.

ORDER THEREON, 22nd March 1865, No. 637.
