2. I am now directed to report, for the information of that Government, that the services of these men have recently been dispensed with, as the object for which they were brought to the Neilgherries had been attained, and that they have been permitted to return to their country. The men embarked on the Steamer "Nubia," on the 11th instant, for Calcutta, and the Superintendent Botanical Gardens at Calcutta was requested, in communication with Dr. Jameson, to arrange for sending them on to their homes. Their travelling expenses will of course be paid by this Government.
