*Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
11th April 1865.*

No. 171. Read the following letter from C. W. READE, Esq., Collector of South Arcot, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Punrooty, 25th March 1865, No. 25 :—

SIR,

1. The office of Sheristadar of Tindevanum Talook became temporarily vacant in November last, none of the few passed officials were willing to take up the temporary appointment, and I was forced to nominate an unpassed but efficient officer, one Srinevassa Aiyengar, Second Gumashta in the Tindevanum Talook Cutcherry.

	RS. A. P.
Half pay from the 11th November to 10th Decem- ber 1864 at 5 1/2 Rupees	24 2 8	2. Srinevassa Aiyengar has since reverted to his permanent post, but the Civil Paymaster has declined to pass the salary* of the office, Rupees 85-7-5, for the period he officiated, or from 11th November 1864 to 17th January 1865.
Full pay from 11th December 1864 to 17th January 1865	61 4 9
	85 7 5

3. Srinevassa Aiyengar has drawn no pay from the 11th December 1864 up to 17th January 1865, save a moiety of the salary of his own office from 11th November to 10th December 1864, the other moiety and the full salary for the remaining period having been paid to the person who acted for him. I therefore solicit the sanction of Government for the disbursement to Srinevassa Aiyengar of the amount due to him as shewn above.

4. A similar case has occurred in the Talook of Cuddalore. The Sheristadarship was vacant and no passed Candidate available, and accordingly I appointed an unpassed and able servant of my own office, one Bundavála Srinevassa Rau. The Civil Paymaster has also declined to pass his salary, and in consequence he too has drawn no pay for February, and the pay of his permanent office has already been disbursed to those who were temporarily promoted in his room. I request sanction for the audit of this man's pay also.

5. I have since been able to appoint a passed Candidate to Cuddalore, but the Sheristadarship of Trinamalay still temporarily vacant, had to be filled up, and I had no alternative than to send Bundavála Srinevassa Rau there as the fittest unpassed official; but the objection of the Civil Paymaster still remains, and therefore I have to report that Government will be pleased to authorize the payment of the full salary of the office, 45 Rupees a month, while he is so employed, which will be until the permanent incumbent returns or a passed man is available.

6. I have further to add that the post of Translator in my office has become suddenly vacant by the death of the incumbent, and in order to secure the best man, I have advertised for a passed Candidate, and the several applications received are about to receive consideration, but until the selection be made it has of course been necessary to nominate some one to carry on the onerous work of the Translator's place, and accordingly I at once nominated the English Record-keeper of my Office, Sevaje Rau, being the fittest man on the spot, but not having passed, the Civil Paymaster may possibly refuse his audit to the salary of Sevaje Rau, and accordingly I solicit the authority of Government, in anticipation of such refusal, for the payment of the full salary of the post up to the date Sevaje Rau may continue to do the duty. A new and passed Translator will, I hope, be appointed on or about the 15th proximo, at all events by the 1st May next.

No. 172.

ORDER THEREON, 11th April 1865, No. 794.

Miscellaneous.

The Civil Paymaster is authorized to pass the salaries of Srinevassa Aiyengar and Bundavála Srinevassa Rau, as shewn in paragraphs 2 and 5 of the Collector's letter. The Acting Translator Sevaje Rau's salary will also be passed up to the time the Collector finds a passed Candidate for the post.
