Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 10th May 1865.

No. 172. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd May 1865.

Read Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, dated 12th April 1865 No. 799:—

The Board are of opinion that the document in question should be stamped as a Bond for the payment of money, conditionally, under Article 12 of Schedule A. of the Stamp Act. The Board observe, however, that they are not competent under the Act to give an opinion on a general question of this nature, but only as to the liability of any particular document to Stamp Duty under the provision of Section 19. They would suggest that the opinion of the Advocate General should be taken.
