5	Nellore, in Nellore Talook at Rupees 7 per man- sen, or Rupees 84 per year.	Originally granted under a Parvana of the Nabob Wajajah, dated 16th Moharam 1207, Hijiri, (A. D. 4th September 1792,) to Mahomed Ibrahim.	The service Yeomiah of imparting instruction to Mahomedan children.	Mahomed Rahamtulla died on the 13th June 1864. He was son of the original grantee.	Exclusive holder.	1 Ashabi, wife of deceased, aged 50 years. 1 Mahomed Hanif, eldest son, aged 36 years. 1 Mahomed Ibrahim, 2nd son, aged 25 years. 1 Ahmad Sahib, 3rd son, aged 21 years. 1 Husenbi, daughter, age 28 years.	1. Mahomed Rahamtulla, who was on a monthly receipt of Rupees 7 for teaching Persian, died on 13th June 1864, leaving behind him a widow, three sons, and a daughter as entered in column 7. 2. From the report of the Nellore Town Sub-Magistrate, dated 30th September last, No. 32, it appears that the parties concerned have given Kyphiyates requesting the renewal of the Yeomiah in the name of the second son named Mahomed Ibrahim, and as the service is stated to be kept up, the Collector recommends the registration accordingly with the payment of arrears, amounting to Rupees 42 from 1st June 1864, to 30th November 1864.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th May 1865.

1. The Yeomiah above reported on appears for the first time on the Board's records under No. 145 in a "list of Yeomiah and other allowances" submitted by Mr. Fraser to the Board for the Orders of Government with his letter, dated 20th October 1812. It was granted, as Mr. Dykes observes in his present Statement, by the Nabob Wallajah in A. D. 1792 to Mahomed Ibrahim as a remuneration for his teaching Mahomedan boys the Koran. On the Board's recommendation the Government sanctioned the continuance of this and all such Yeomials included in the list above referred to, without specifying the term for which they were to be continued.

2. In a Statement, dated 16th September 1820, "of the claims to the succession of Yeomials in the Nellore and Ongole Districts," received by the Board from the Collector of Nellore, Mahomed Ibrahim is reported to have died on the 30th August 1806, and the Yeomiah to be claimed by his son Raheematoollah, who was at the time performing the required duty, and whose death is now reported. The Board, in submitting the above Statement to Government, recommended, as regards the Yeomiah in question (No. 260) and other Yeomials similarly in abeyance, that final orders should be issued to the Collector for "striking them off" as "no satisfactory explanation had been afforded by the Collector why these pensions, the payment of which had during a long course of years been suspended should be again renewed."

3. The Government do not appear (vide Board's letter to Collector, No. 1,320, dated 30th September 1822) to have passed any orders on the above Statement; but another Statement, dated 19th November 1822, in which the cases entered in the former Statement were included was submitted to Government on the 12th December 1822, and the Board then recommended, apparently on a re-consideration of the nature of the Yeomiah now under report, that "it should be continued for the support of the present claimant," and the Government sanctioned the continuance.

4. Mahomed Raheematoollah died on the 13th June 1864, and though Yeomials of this kind may not be considered strictly perpetual and hereditary, yet it has been usual to continue them so long as the services for which they were originally granted continued to be performed, and the Board accordingly under the general authority conveyed in the Government orders noted in the margin sanction the renewal of the Yeomiah of 7 Rupees per mensem in the name of Mahomed Ibrahim, second son of deceased, from the date of the latter's death. The arrears will also be paid to this individual, subject to the audit of the Civil Paymaster.

5. Ordered that a copy of these Proceedings be submitted for the confirmation of Government.
