This is one of the subsistence allowances transferred to the head of "Life-grants," under the Extract from Minutes of Consultation, dated 19th August 1854. 2. Up to Fusly 1262 (1852-53) the allowance was drawn in the village, by a duction from the Kistbundy Beriz.

3. At the time the order for the transfer to the head of "Life-grant" was received, the Petitioner appears to have been absent from the District, and his younger brother having applied for payment of the allowance to him, on the ground that the Inámdar had been on pilgrimage for 1½ year, an order was passed by the then Collector, on the 14th July 1854, to the effect that the prayer could not be complied with, without knowing the wishes of the absent Inámdar. The life-grantee has now a cause of the lengthened absence of the Inámdar not distinctly stated, he was a pilgrim - but the reason is not given which kept him on that pilgrimage so long. duration of his absence does not prove that he has means may have lived on alms. Unless the period for which arrears can be claimed be limited, as suggested by Mr.

Phillips, by law I do not see why he should not get them. By what law do they belong to him? The Govt. have already sanctioned payment of arrears amounting to Rs 63-2-5, & the continuation of this allowance during Butch Inámdar's life time are sanctioned.

I do not see a rule that arrears of an allowance for subsistence shall not be paid if in arrears of years? I recalled something of this kind. But if there be no such rule, I think there ought to be one, for it is sufficiently obvious that a man who can travel about for years, in this case 12 years, cannot well require

he has been assured and receive the allowance as the man seems to have looked for his estate, but would not pay arrears. I do not think it is
